IN RE: STANDARD JURY INSTRUCTIONS IN CRIMINAL CASES— REPORT 2017-02.

[October 26, 2017]

PER CURIAM.

The Supreme Court Committee on Standard Jury Instructions in Criminal Cases (Committee) has submitted proposed changes to the standard jury instructions and asks that the Court authorize the amended standard instructions for publication and use. We have jurisdiction. See art. V, § 2(a), Fla. Const.

The Committee proposes amending the following existing standard instructions pertaining to prostitution-related offenses: 23.1 (Maintaining a Place of Prostitution, Lewdness, or Assignment); 23.2 (Soliciting for the Purpose of Prostitution or a Lewd or Indecent Act); 23.3 (Receiving for the Purpose of Prostitution, Lewdness or Assignment); 23.4 (Transporting for the Purpose of Prostitution, Lewdness or Assignment); 23.5 (Offering to Commit, Committing, or Engaging in Prostitution, Lewdness, or Assignment); 23.6 (Soliciting for Prostitution, Lewdness, or Assignment); and 23.7 (Entering for the Purpose of Prostitution, Lewdness, or Assignment). Following publication of its proposals, the Committee received one comment from the Florida Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (FACDL). After the Committee filed its report, the Court did not publish the proposals. The Court authorizes for publication and use instructions 23.1 through 23.7 as proposed.

The Committee made a number of changes to its proposals based upon the comment by the FACDL, as discussed below, but rejected the suggestion to clarify that prior related offenses are an element of the current offense, on the basis that the Court previously rejected the idea that the issue of “element or recidivist factor” could be decided in a jury instruction case, citing In re Standard Jury Instructions in Criminal Cases—Report No. 2015-08, 194 So. 3d 1007 (Fla. 2016). We adhere to that earlier decision. Instead, the Committee revised the Comment section of each instruction to address this situation.

The more significant amendments to the instructions are discussed below.

The following amendment is applicable to all of the instructions herein at issue. Because section 796.036, Florida Statutes, was repealed by the Legislature in 2014, all references to that provision and the paragraph thereunder are removed. See ch. 2014-160, § 10, Laws of Fla. (repealing § 796.036, Fla. Stat.).

With regard to instructions 23.1, 23.3, 23.4, and 23.7, which include the definition of “structure,” these instructions are also amended to include a citation to Dubose v. State, 210 So. 3d 641 (Fla. 2017), and the following sentence placed in brackets is added to the definition of “structure”: “The enclosure need not be continuous as it may have an ungated opening for entering and exiting.”

Next, because the offense instructed upon in instruction 23.1 provides for reclassification pursuant to section 796.07(7), Florida Statutes, which increases the degree of the crime if the place, structure, building, or conveyance that is owned, established, maintained, or operated in violation of the statute is a massage establishment that is or should be licensed, a new paragraph is also added that allows the jury to make a determination as to whether the State proved that the reclassification applies. Statutory definitions for “massage establishment,” “massage therapist,” and “massage,” from chapter 480, Florida Statutes, are also added.

Instruction 23.5 is further amended to add a second element to the offense of Offering to Commit, Committing, or Engaging in Prostitution, Lewdness, or Assignment, which requires the State to prove that the defendant was 18 years of age or older at the time of his/her act. See § 796.07(2)(e), Fla. Stat. (2016).

Last, instruction 23.6 is further amended to redefine the term “solicit,” in accord with section 777.04(2), Florida Statutes.

Having considered the Committee's report, criminal jury instructions 23.1 through 23.7, as proposed by the Committee, and as set forth in the appendix to this opinion, are hereby authorized for publication and use.<sup>1</sup> New language is indicated by underlining, and deleted language is indicated by struck-through type. In authorizing the publication and use of these instructions, we express no opinion on their correctness and remind all interested parties that this authorization forecloses neither requesting additional or alternative instructions nor contesting the legal correctness of the instructions. We further caution all interested parties that any comments associated with the instructions reflect only the opinion of the Committee and are not necessarily indicative of the views of this Court as to their correctness or applicability. The instructions as set forth in the appendix shall be effective when this opinion becomes final.

It is so ordered.

LABARGA, C.J., and PARIENTE, LEWIS, QUINCE, CANADY, POLSTON, and LAWSON, JJ., concur.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE REHEARING MOTION AND, IF FILED, DETERMINED.

1. The amendments as reflected in the appendix are to the Criminal Jury Instructions as they appear on the Court's website at www.floridasupremecourt.org/jury\_instructions/instructions.shtml. We recognize that there may be minor discrepancies between the instructions as they appear on the website and the published versions of the instructions. Any discrepancies as to instructions authorized for publication and use after October 25, 2007, should be resolved by reference to the published opinion of this Court authorizing the instruction.

Comments

The crimes in § 796.07(2)(a), Florida Statutes, and § 796.07(7)(a), Florida Statutes, are enhanced based on the number of prior violations. As of July 2017, it is unclear whether the existence of a prior violation will be treated as an element of the crime that must be found by the jury in a bifurcated trial or whether a prior violation can be proven to the judge at sentencing.

This instruction was adopted in 1981 and amended in 2008 [995 So. 2d 476], 2010 [48 So. 3d 41], and 2013 [122 So. 3d 302], and 2017.

23.2 SOLICITING FOR THE PURPOSE OF PROSTITUTION

(Defendant) [offered] [offered to secure] [agreed to secure] another person for the purpose of [prostitution] [any lewd or indecent act].

Give if applicable. Fla. Stat. § 796.036.

~~If you find the defendant guilty of Soliciting for the Purpose of [Prostitution] [Any Lewd or Indecent Act], you must then determine whether the State has proven beyond a reasonable doubt that:~~

- ~~a. — A minor was engaged in the [prostitution] [lewdness] [assignment] [sexual conduct] [(other conduct prohibited in Chapter 796)]; and,~~
