No. SC17-1543

IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO RULE 4-44 OF THE RULES OF THE
SUPREME COURT RELATING TO ADMISSIONS TO THE FLORIDA BAR.

[October 19, 2017]

PER CURIAM.

This matter is before the Court for consideration of proposed amendments to the Rules of the Supreme Court Relating to Admissions to the Bar. We have jurisdiction. See art. V, § 15, Fla. Const.

The Florida Board of Bar Examiners (Board) has filed a petition seeking to amend rule 4-44 (Computer Option) of the Rules of the Supreme Court Relating to Admissions to the Bar. The proposed amendments pertain to the use of laptop computers on the essay portion of the General Bar Examination. Rule 4-44 permits the use of a laptop computer for the essay portion of the General Bar Examination. Under the current rule, an applicant must complete a form available on the Board's website and pay a fee of $125. At present, the rule itself does not expressly include a deadline for the applicant to notify the Board of his or her intent to use a laptop and pay the fee. The application to take the examination is available online and states the deadlines for notifying the Board of the applicant's election to use a laptop and to pay the fee, that coincide with the final deadlines for registering for the examination under rule 4-43.2—January 15 for the February examination and June 15 for the July examination. The application itself also gives the applicant an opportunity to elect to use a laptop. If the applicant chooses this option, an onscreen prompt indicates that the laptop fee is due when the application is submitted.

Upon consideration of the Board's petition, we amend rule 4-44, as proposed by the Board, to state that applicants are required to indicate their intention to use a laptop for the examination on the application, or otherwise notify the Board in writing of their intent, and pay the laptop fee at the time they register to take the exam. The rule is also amended to explicitly state the deadlines applicable to laptop use. In addition, language in the rule requiring an applicant to complete a separate form on the Board's website is deleted. As noted, the examination application itself already allows an applicant to make this election.

Accordingly, rule 4-44 of the Rules of the Supreme Court Relating to Admissions to the Bar is amended as reflected in the appendix to this opinion. New language is indicated by underscoring; deletions are indicated by struck-through type. The amendments shall become effective immediately upon release of this opinion. Because the amendments were not published for comment prior to their adoption, interested persons shall have sixty days from the date of this opinion in which to file comments with the Court.¹

It is so ordered.

LABARGA, C.J., and PARIENTE, LEWIS, QUINCE, CANADY, POLSTON, and LAWSON, JJ., concur.

THE FILING OF A MOTION FOR REHEARING SHALL NOT ALTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THESE AMENDMENTS.
