

Supreme Court of Florida

No. SC18-1908

IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO THE FLORIDA FAMILY LAW RULES OF PROCEDURE—FORMS 12.996(a) AND 12.996(d).

December 5, 2019

PER CURIAM.

This matter is before the Court for consideration of proposed amendments to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Forms. We have jurisdiction. See art. V, § 2(a), Fla. Const.

The Family Law Rules Committee (Committee) filed an Out-of-Cycle Report of the Family Law Rules Committee Regarding Forms for Income Deduction Orders. See Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.140(f). The Committee's proposals were made in response to this Court's request in In re Amendments to the Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure—Form 12.996(d), 121 So. 3d 505 (Fla. 2013), that the Committee suggest an approach to address the confusion concerning the existing federal and Florida income deduction order and notices. To resolve this issue, the Committee proposes amendments to Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.996(a) (Income Deduction Order) and the deletion of Form 12.996(d) (Florida Addendum to Income Withholding Order).

The Board of Governors approved both the proposed amendments to Form 12.996(a) and the deletion of Form 12.996(d). The Committee published the amendments for comment before filing them with this Court, but no comments were received. Subsequently, this Court published the proposals for comments, and received one comment from the Florida Department of Revenue in support of the proposals.

AMENDMENTS

The instructions to Form 12.996(a) are amended so that it may be used in both Title IV-D and non-Title IV-D cases, and the title of the form is updated to reflect this change. Also, a paragraph is added to the instructions advising the user that the federal Income Withholding for Support Form (IWO) should be attached as a notice to Form 12.996(a), and additional instructions are included for filling out the IWO. Also, the form is amended to include additional options to include all forms of alimony and child support that may be deducted. Additionally, editorial amendments and amendments to improve clarity are made throughout the instructions. Finally, Form 12.996(d) is deleted because it is no longer needed due to the amendments to Form 12.996(a).

CONCLUSION

Accordingly, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.996(a) is hereby amended as set forth in the appendix to this opinion, fully engrossed, and Form 12.996(d) is hereby deleted. The amended form will also be available on the Florida State Courts' website at www.flcourts.org/gen_public/family/forms_rules/index.shtml. The amendments shall become effective immediately upon release of this opinion.

It is so ordered.

CANADY, C.J., and POLSTON, LABARGA, LAWSON, LAGOA, and MUÑIZ, JJ., concur.

THE FILING OF A MOTION FOR REHEARING SHALL NOT ALTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THESE AMENDMENTS.

APPENDIX

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA FAMILY LAW RULES OF PROCEDURE FORM 12.996(a), INCOME DEDUCTION ORDER (12/19)

When should this form be used?

This form should be used in all cases when the court has ordered that support be paid by the obligor's payor through an income deduction order.

This form includes several blanks that must be filled in as applicable. The obligor is the person who is obligated to pay the support ordered by the court and the obligee is the person entitled to receive the support awarded by the court.

In Paragraph 1, one of the three lines must be checked off. The court order that establishes the support award and/or the settlement or mediation agreement entered into between the parties should state the effective date of the Income Deduction Order. The appropriate effective date should be checked off in Paragraph 1.

The blank lines in Paragraph 2 should be completed tracking the same terms of support as are in the court order that establishes the support award and/or the settlement or mediation agreement. The first blank in each line should state the amount of the support payment and the second blank in each line should state the time period that covers said support award. For example, if the child support is $100 per month the first blank would say $ "100" and the second blank in that line would say "month". Similarly, if the payments are to be payable weekly, then the second blank would say "week". If there are any arrearages owed at the time the Income Deduction Order is entered, they must be included in the line for arrears, along with the amount and frequency of the payments due for the arrears, which must be no less than 20% of the current support obligation. All orders for immediate income deduction must be paid through the State Disbursement Unit. The actual dollar amount of the Clerk's fee for the support awarded in your case (4% of each payment not to exceed $5.25 per payment) must be included on the appropriate line.

Paragraph 6 must be completed to show what percentage, if any, of a one-time payment made to the obligor should be applied to any arrearage in support that may be due to the obligee.

If the Income Deduction Order is addressing child support, you must complete the schedule in paragraph 7 to show the amount of child support for all the minor children at the time of the entry of this order and the amount of the child support that will be owed for any remaining child(ren) after one or more of the children are no longer entitled to receive child support. You should also show in the schedule the day, month, and year that the child support obligation terminates for each minor child. The date child support terminates should be listed as the child's 18th birthday unless the court has found that section 743.07(2), Florida Statutes, applies, or the parties have otherwise agreed to a different date. You should use the record existing at the time of this order for the basis of computing all child support obligations.

If the Income Deduction Order is addressing child support, you must also complete and attach the federal INCOME WITHHOLDING FOR SUPPORT (IWO) FORM (OMB Form 0970-0154) to the Income Deduction Order. When filling out an Income Withholding for Support Form, please note the following additional instructions for that form:

1. The Remittance Identifier is the County Code for the county in which the case was heard followed by the Case Number. A list of county codes is included with these instructions.

2. The FIPS code may be found on the attached list. Use the code for the County in which the case is pending.

What should I do next?

For this order to be effective, it must be signed by the judge. This form should be typed or printed in black ink. After completing this form, you must first send a copy to the other party or his or her attorney, if he or she is represented by an attorney, for approval or objection to the form before you send it to the judge assigned to your case. If the opposing party or his or her attorney, if represented, approves the form order, you may send the original proposed order and two copies to the judge assigned to your case with a letter telling the judge that you have first sent a copy of this proposed order to the opposing counsel or party, if unrepresented, and that they have no objection to the judge signing this order. If the other party or his or her attorney, if represented, has an objection to the proposed order as completed by you, you must tell the judge that you have sent a copy of this proposed order to the opposing party or his or her counsel, if represented, and that they specifically object to the entry of the proposed form Income Deduction Order. You must also send stamped self-addressed envelopes to the judge addressed to you and the opposing party or his or her attorney, if represented. You should keep a copy for your own records. If the judge signs the Income Deduction Order, the judge will mail you and the opposing party (or their attorney) copies of the signed order in the envelopes you provide to the court.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read “General Information for Self-Represented Litigants” found at the beginning of these forms. The words that are in “bold underline” in these instructions are defined there. For further information see section 61.1301, Florida Statutes.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-FILING

The rules and procedures should be carefully read and followed.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING E-SERVICE ELECTION

The Florida Rules of Judicial Administration now require that all documents required or permitted to be served on the other party must be served by electronic mail (e-mail) except in certain circumstances. You must strictly comply with the format requirements set forth in the Rules of Judicial Administration. If you elect to participate in electronic service, which means serving or receiving pleadings by electronic mail (e-mail), or through the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal, you must review Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.516. You may find this rule at www.flcourts.org through the link to the Rules of Judicial Administration provided under either Family Law Forms: Getting Started, or Rules of Court in the A-Z Topical Index.

SELF-REPRESENTED LITIGANTS MAY SERVE DOCUMENTS BY E-MAIL; HOWEVER, THEY ARE NOT REQUIRED TO DO SO. If a self-represented litigant elects to serve and receive documents by e-mail, the procedures must always be followed once the initial election is made.
