

Supreme Court of Florida

No. SC97130

THE FLORIDA BAR
RE: BECKER & POLIAKOFF, P.A.,

[November 9, 2000]

PER CURIAM.

Becker & Poliakoff, P.A., petitioned the Court to rescind Florida Bar Advisory Ethics Opinion 93-4. We held oral argument on October 4, 2000. After further consideration, we have determined that we should decline to exercise jurisdiction. Therefore, the petition is dismissed.

It is so ordered.

WELLS, C.J., and SHAW, HARDING, PARIENTE, LEWIS and QUINCE, JJ., concur.

ANSTEAD, J., concurs specially with an opinion, in which PARIENTE, J.,
concur.

NO MOTION FOR REHEARING WILL BE ALLOWED.

ANSTEAD, J., specially concurring.

While I concur in the majority's decision to discharge jurisdiction, I would do so expressly without prejudice for this matter to be considered by the appropriate committee on the rules regulating The Florida Bar. The committee should provide a proper venue for debate on the rule at issue, now having been formally interpreted by the Bar, and the outcome of that debate would be a proper subject for review by this Court regardless of whether a rule change is recommended.

PARIENTE, J., concurs.

Original Proceeding - The Florida Bar

Gerald F. Richman, Joseph F. Hession and John R. Whittles of Richman, Greer, Weil, Brumbaugh, Mirabito & Christensen, P.A., West Palm Beach, Florida,

for Petitioner

Barry Richard of Greenberg, Traurig, P.A., Tallahassee, Florida,

for The Florida Bar, Respondent

John B. Liebman of O'Neill, Chapin, Liebman & Cooper, P.A., Orlando, Florida,

for Interested Persons, Kathleen Burgener, Paul Wean and Robert Tankel