Not final until disposition of timely filed motion for rehearing.

No. 3D18-2278
Lower Tribunal No. 14-19199

Anthony Greene,
Appellant,

vs.

Claudia Marcela Cortes Losada,
Appellee.

An Appeal from the Circuit Court for Miami-Dade County, George A. Sarduy, Judge.

Anthony Greene, in proper person.

Roth & Scholl, and Jeffrey C. Roth; Michel O. Weisz, P.A., and Michel Weisz, for appellee.

Before SALTER, LINDSEY, and HENDON, JJ.

PER CURIAM.

Anthony Greene, former husband, appeals (1) a composite post-judgment order enforcing the terms of a mediated marital settlement agreement (“MSA”) ratified in the final judgment dissolving the parties' marriage, and (2) a final judgment awarding child support arrearages and attorney's fees and costs. The former wife, now known as Marcela Cortes, moved in 2017 for enforcement of the parties' 2015 MSA. The motion was heard by a general magistrate in 2018. The resulting report and recommendations were ratified by the trial court over the former husband's objections, and the court also denied the former husband's cross-motion seeking vacation of the MSA and modification of his child support obligations.

We find no abuse of discretion in the trial court proceedings below. We thus affirm the order and final judgment, each entered October 15, 2018, in all respects. See Ramos v. Ramos, 219 So. 3d 263, 264 (Fla. 3d DCA 2017). Additionally, the former husband did not provide a transcript of the relevant hearings or a reconstructed record. Finding no error of law on the face of the orders or judgment, and lacking an evidentiary record, affirmance is required on this basis as well. See Cardona v. Casas, 225 So. 3d 384 (Fla. 3d DCA 2017).

Affirmed.
