IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF HAWAI‘I

In the Matter of the Judiciary’s Response to the COVID-19 Outbreak

FOURTH EXTENSION OF ORDER REGARDING TEMPORARY EXTENSION OF THE TIME REQUIREMENTS UNDER HAWAI‘I RULES OF PENAL PROCEDURE RULE 5 (c) (3)
(By: Recktenwald, C.J., Nakayama, McKenna, and Eddins, JJ., with Wilson, J., concurring and dissenting¹)

The COVID-19 pandemic has caused a public health emergency. In response to the pandemic, the Judiciary postponed non-urgent court business and limited in-person proceedings in an effort to ensure the health and safety of court users and Judiciary personnel, and to minimize the risk of spreading COVID-19 in the courts. As COVID-19 cases remained low, court operations resumed in accordance with public health safety guidance, and to the extent possible with available resources. Criminal proceedings have proceeded in-person and by video conference in accordance with court rules and as feasible.

In July 2020, there was a surge of COVID-19 cases in Hawai'i, with record numbers of positive cases and increased hospitalizations being reported. There was also a surge of COVID-19 cases in our community correctional centers and facilities, particularly at the O'ahu Community Correctional Center ("OCCC"). As a result, inmates were being held in quarantine and the transport of custody defendants was suspended, thus impacting the time requirements for preliminary hearings under Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure ("HRPP") Rule 5(c)(3). Further, in a letter to the court dated August 18, 2020, the Office of the Public Defender requested the temporary suspension of, inter alia, HRPP Rule 5(c)(3), noting that defendants released from OCCC on bail or otherwise may need to quarantine and comply with isolation requirements, and that allowing the courts to continue matters for non-custody defendants would assist in those endeavors.

Thus, on August 27, 2020, this court entered the "Order Regarding Temporary Extension of the Time Requirements Under Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure Rule 5(c)(3)," which provided that the first circuit may temporarily extend the time requirements for preliminary hearings no longer than reasonably necessary to protect public health and safety, while encouraging judges to follow the time requirements under HRPP Rule 5(c)(3) to the extent possible and to utilize remote technology as feasible. Since then, as the COVID-19 cases continued to remain high, as transports of custody defendants from all O'ahu correctional facilities were suspended, and the number of citations issued for Hawai'i Revised Statutes ("HRS") ch. 127A violations grew exponentially, this court extended the provisions of the August 27, 2020 order. Currently, the August 27, 2020 order, as extended, expires on December 31, 2020.

The rate of positive COVID-19 cases and hospitalizations on O'ahu, including at OCCC, continues to fluctuate, and the number of citations for HRS ch. 127A violations continues to remain high. Additionally, with the grand jury in recess in January, the number of preliminary hearings increases significantly. These evolving conditions require flexibility and vigilance, and the continued need to protect the health and safety of court users and Judiciary personnel during this unprecedented time remains paramount. Thus, a further extension of the August 27, 2020 order for first circuit criminal matters is necessary.

Accordingly, pursuant to article VI, section 7 of the Hawai'i Constitution, HRS §§ 601-1.5 and 602-5(a)(6), and Governor David Y. Ige's Emergency Proclamations,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the August 27, 2020 "Order Regarding Temporary Extension of the Time Requirements Under Hawai'i Rules of Penal Procedure Rule 5(c)(3)" for first circuit criminal matters is further extended until February 14, 2021, unless otherwise further modified or extended.

Dated: Honolulu, Hawai'i, December 23, 2020.
