COURT OF APPEAL, FIRST CIRCUIT

STATE OF LOUISIANA

NO. 2014 KW 1818

VERSUS

RENALDO CLAIBORNE

FEB 23 2015

---

In Re: Renaldo Claiborne, applying for supervisory writs,
23rd Judicial District Court, Parish of Ascension, No.
24627.

BEFORE: PETTIGREW, DRAKE AND CHUTZ, JJ.

WRIT DENIED. The documents attached to the writ application do not support relator's claim that he did not knowingly and intelligently waive his right to a jury trial. See La. Code Crim. P. art. 930.2. Furthermore, unless required in the interest of justice, any claim for relief which was fully litigated in an appeal from the proceedings leading to the judgment of conviction and sentence shall not be considered. La. Code Crim. P. art. 930.4(A). An appellate court itself may invoke the mandatory procedural bar of Article 930.4(A). Carlin v. Cain, 97-2390 (La. 3/13/98), 706 So.2d 968 (per curiam). Relator's second, third, and fourth postconviction claims were disposed of on appeal. Therefore, the district court did not err by not reconsidering these claims in the postconviction proceedings. Accordingly, the district court did not err by denying the application for postconviction relief.
