COURT OF APPEAL, FIRST CIRCUIT

STATE OF LOUISIANA

NO. 2017 KW 1181

VERSUS

NOV 27 2017

CHRISTIAN CHASE HENRY

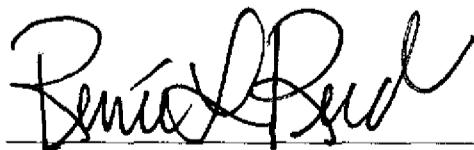

In Re: Christian Chase Henry, applying for supervisory writs,
22nd Judicial District Court, Parish of Washington,
No. 14-CR10-127191.

BEFORE: McCLENDON, WELCH AND THERIOT, JJ.

WRIT GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. Whoever commits manslaughter shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not more than forty years. See La. R.S. 14:31(B). The court indicated that the imposition of the manslaughter sentence without benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence was a misstatement. On April 20, 2017, the district court ordered the sentencing court minutes amended to remove the language restricting parole, probation, and suspension of the sentence. However, it appears that the court failed to amend the commitment order to reflect the removal of the restrictive language. Therefore, we remand to the district court with instructions for the court to order the commitment order amended and to direct the clerk of court to forward a copy of the amended order to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, if it has not already done so. The district court did not abuse its discretion by denying the application for postconviction relief. Therefore, the writ application is denied in all other respects.
