McDONALD, J.

In this appeal, Texas Brine Company, LLC, challenged a November 17, 2016 judgment granting an exception of lis pendens and dismissing Texas Brine's third-party demands against Gulf Underwriters Insurance Company and St. Paul Surplus Lines Insurance Company, as alleged insurers of Reliance Petroleum Corporation, without prejudice. After the case was argued, the parties filed a "Joint Motion To Summarily Dismiss Appeal As Moot."

Under Rule 2-8.3 of the Uniform Rules of the Courts of Appeal, any appeal may be summarily dismissed where there has been a joint motion filed by all interested parties or their counsel of record, which shall set forth the reason for such action, and which shall be supported by appropriate affidavits that the facts alleged are true and correct.

Based on the parties' joint motion, which complies with URCA Rule 2-8.3, we dismiss the appeal. We need not address any other outstanding motions related to this appeal. We assess costs of the appeal one-half to Texas Brine Company, LLC, and one-half to Gulf Underwriters Insurance Company and St. Paul Surplus Lines Insurance Company.

APPEAL DISMISSED.
