

STATE OF LOUISIANA
COURT OF APPEAL, FIRST CIRCUIT

RICHARD A. MARKSBURY, PH.D

NO. 2020 CW 0911

VERSUS

LOUISIANA STATE BOARD OF
EXAMINERS OF PSYCHOLOGISTS

OCTOBER 6, 2020

In Re: Richard A. Marksbury, PH.D, applying for supervisory writs, 19th Judicial District Court, Parish of East Baton Rouge, No. 682294.

BEFORE: HIGGINBOTHAM, THERIOT, AND WOLFE, JJ.

WRIT DENIED. A writ of mandamus may be issued in cases where the law provides no relief by ordinary means or where the delay involved in obtaining ordinary relief may cause injustice. Gibson & Associates, Inc. v. State, Dept. of Transp. & Development, 2010-1696 (La. App. 1st Cir. 5/18/11), 68 So.3d 1128, 1140. Relator has an adequate remedy for relief by filing a motion, with accompanying order, requesting that the trial court issue a ruling on the exceptions that were heard on September 30, 2019, based on the pleadings and prior submissions of the parties, or alternatively request the matter be reset for hearing.
