LOVE, J., CONCURS IN THE RESULTS AND ASSIGNS REASONS

I respectfully concur in the result of the majority.

The plaintiff never asserted any claims against Acadian Ambulance based on medical malpractice. The plaintiff also never submitted his claim to a medical review panel, as required in actions against qualified health care providers pursuant to La. R.S. 40:1299.47(B)(a)(i).

Unlike the majority, I find that this case presents a procedural deficiency, which does not necessitate substantive analysis.
