MICHELE D. WOOD
CLERK OF COURTS

STATE OF MAINE

v.

ORDER ON MOTION TO SUPPRESS

SHIRLEY KALLOCH,

Defendant

DONALD L. GARBRECHT
LIBRARY

This matter is before the court on motion to suppress statements made by the defendant to a fire investigator of the Maine State Fire Marshal's Office and a detective of the Maine State Police in the polygraph examining room of the Maine State Police. Defendant, through counsel, makes allegations regarding lack of proper Miranda warning, custody of the defendant and certain deceptions through the use of the polygraph machine resulting in admissions by the defendant.

The court has examined a videotape made of the entire proceeding and finds that the defendant was fully apprised of her Miranda rights and indicated that she completely understood them. She acknowledged having some understanding of them at the outset. It is abundantly clear throughout the proceeding that the defendant understood that she was not in custody, she was not going to be arrested but, in fact, she was going to be taken by the authorities to her residence and, after review by the District Attorney, if necessary, she would receive a summons for a court appearance.

There was no question throughout the proceeding that the defendant fully understood the identity and authority within law enforcement of the questioning individuals and she was fully apprised of the workings of the polygraph machine which was available for use.

---

In fact, the polygraph operator, the Maine State Police detective, very skillfully and effectively gained the confidence of Ms. Kalloch after fully explaining her rights and fully explaining the functioning of the polygraph machine with the result that she relived her mental state existing at the time in question and after continuing encouragement by the examiner, she disclosed, first to the detective and then to the fire investigator, her version of the activities in question.

The court finds no evidence that the defendant was subject to any proceedings in violation of her constitutional rights or that she was not fully and freely a volunteer in the entire process.

The entry will be:

Defendant's motion to suppress is DENIED.
