STATE OF MAINE

v.

DARYL BROWN,

Defendant

ORDER ON MOTION
TO SUPPRESS

The defendant seeks to suppress evidence obtained as a result of the stop of the vehicle operated by the defendant on 11/3/10. The defendant argues that the officer lacked specific and articulable facts to justify the stop or to order the defendant to get out of his vehicle. For the following reasons, the motion is denied.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Cumberland County Deputy Sheriff Sergeant Trevor Cote was on duty on 11/3/10 when he received a call from dispatch. A civilian witness had called with concerns about a Toyota pick-up truck that was swerving and could not maintain its speed.¹ The truck was reported to have turned on the Moody Road.

Deputy Sheriff Cote checked the registration given to him, which revealed an address of Steep Falls. Deputy Sheriff headed to the address. Five minutes later, he made contact with the truck on the Boundary Road, which is close to the Moody Road. The registration and description of the Toyota truck matched the information from dispatch.

Deputy Sheriff Cote followed the truck for three or four tenths of a mile.

¹ Some of the information provided to Deputy Cote by dispatch was not captured on the dispatch audiotape.

He observed the truck swerve to the right side of the road and then to the left side of the road. Both driver side tires crossed the centerline by approximately one foot. Deputy Cote decided to stop the truck and activated the blue lights on his marked cruiser.

Deputy Cote approached the truck after the truck pulled off the road. He could detect an odor of an intoxicating beverage when the operator, the defendant, spoke. Deputy Cote asked the defendant to step out of the truck. because Deputy Cote intended to ask the defendant to perform field sobriety tests.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Because the information provided by the civilian witness with regard to the description, registration, location, and operation of the truck was verified by the deputy's observations, the deputy had "specific and articulable facts sufficient to warrant the stop." State v. Lafond, 2002 ME 124, ¶¶ 6, 9, 802 A.2d 425, 428-29; see also State v. McDonald, 2010 ME 102, ¶ 9, 6 A.3d 283, 285-86. Further, based on the operation of the truck and the odor of an intoxicating beverage coming from the defendant, the deputy had specific and articulable facts sufficient to warrant the field sobriety tests. State v. Wood, 662 A.2d 919, 920 (Me. 1995); see also State v. King, 2009 ME 14, ¶¶ 6, 9, 965 A.2d 52, 53-54.
