v.

ACADIAN SEAPLANTS, LTD.

ERRATA SHEET

The Court’s opinion certified on March 28, 2019, is revised as follows to correct a typographical error in a parenthetical explanation to a citation in the third paragraph of footnote 10:

Mitchell W. Feeney, Comment, Regulating Seaweed Harvesting in Maine: The Public and Private Interests in an Emerging Marine Resource Industry, 7 Ocean & Coastal L.J. 329, 343 (2002) (discussing the erroneous scientific principles upon which the Court in Hill v. Lord appears to rely, and noting that it “is now known that seaweeds do not receive their nutrients ~~form~~from the soil, but from the surrounding water column [and t]heir only reliance on the soil is for anchorage purposes”).

The original opinion on the Judicial Branch website has been replaced with the opinion as revised.
