On the Court's own motion, the January 4, 2005 opinion is hereby AMENDED. The opinion contained the following clerical error: the word "no" was omitted in the second from last sentence of the first paragraph on page two. The sentence containing the error read:

No evidence was offered that termination would clearly not be in the children's best interest and the court made such finding.

The sentence should have read:

No evidence was offered that termination would clearly not be in the children's best interest and the court made no such finding.

The Reporter's Office is hereby directed to make this change during their editing process.
