No. 184503

LC No. 90-288533

Before: Holbrook, Jr., P.J., and White and S.J. Latreille,* JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Respondent Richard Glover, Sr., appeals as of right from the probate court order that terminated his parental rights to the minor children under MCL 712A.19b(3)(c)(i) and (3)(g); MSA 27.3178(598.19b)(3)(c)(i) and (3)(g). We affirm.

The probate court did not clearly err by finding that the statutory grounds for termination were established by clear and convincing evidence. MCR 5.974(I); In re Miller, 433 Mich 331; 445 NW2d 161 (1989). The evidence established that respondent made no progress toward dealing with his substance abuse problems and did not make significant progress toward being able to care for the children in the reasonably foreseeable future. There was no reasonable expectation that respondent would be able to provide proper care and custody for the children within a reasonable time considering their ages.

Affirmed.
