PROMULGATION OF AMENDMENT TO
RULES OF CIVIL APPELLATE PROCEDURE
RELATED TO AUDIO AND VIDEO COVERAGE
OF APPELLATE COURT PROCEEDINGS

O R D E R

By separate order, we are promulgating amendments to the General Rules of Practice for the District Courts in conjunction with the implementation of a two-year pilot project allowing more extensive audio and video coverage of district court proceedings in civil cases with the consent of the district court judge. Since March 1, 2009, Rule 4.04 of the General Rules of Practice has established standards and requirements for audio and video coverage of appellate court proceedings. These standards and requirements were derived from previous court orders. As part of the 2011 amendments to the General Rules of Practice, we are deleting the provisions regarding audio and video coverage of appellate court proceedings from the General Rules of Practice. By this order, we are adding these provisions to Rule 134 of the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The attached amendment to the Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure be, and the same is, prescribed and promulgated to be effective on July 1, 2011.

2. This amendment shall apply to all appeals pending on the effective date and those filed thereafter.

Dated: March   , 2011
