

STATE OF MINNESOTA

IN SUPREME COURT

ADM10-8008 (formerly C5-84-2139)

OFFICE OF
APPELLATE COURTS

JUN 27 2011

FILED

Order Promulgating Amendments to Rules for Admission to the Bar

ORDER

A petition was filed on April 29, 2009, seeking an amendment to Rule 4(A)(3) of the Rules for Admission to the Bar of the State of Minnesota to permit an attorney licensed in another state to sit for the Minnesota Bar Examination, regardless of the attorney's legal education. By order filed on August 10, 2009, the court ordered the Board of Law Examiners to study the issues raised by the petition and to report to the court by June 1, 2010, concerning any proposed amendment to the rules. The Board filed its report with the court on June 2, 2010; the petitioners filed a response to the Board's report on August 2, 2010.

In an order filed on August 5, 2010, the court indicated that it would consider a rule amendment that would allow "a licensed attorney who has successfully practiced law in another United States jurisdiction for a substantial number of years" to sit for the Minnesota Bar Examination and, if successful and otherwise qualified, to be admitted to the Minnesota bar. The Board filed its proposed amendment on September 30, 2010. After a period of public comment, the court held a hearing on January 26, 2011, on the proposed amendment.

Separately, on September 15, 2010, the Board filed a petition for other amendments to the Rules for Admission to the Bar of a housekeeping nature.

The court being fully advised in the premises,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The attached amendments to the Rules for Admission to the Bar be, and the same are, prescribed and promulgated to be effective on September 1, 2011.

2. These amendments shall apply to all applications for bar examinations to be administered in February 2012 and thereafter. These amendments shall also apply to all applications for admission without examination under Rule 7 and for house counsel licenses under Rules 9 and 10 filed on or after September 1, 2011.

3. The Rules for Admission to the Bar, as amended effective September 1, 2011, shall be posted on the website of the Board of Law Examiners.

 - (i) The materiality of any omissions or misrepresentations.
- (5) Rehabilitation. An applicant who affirmatively asserts rehabilitation from past conduct may provide evidence of rehabilitation by submitting one or more of the following:
- (a) Evidence that the applicant has acknowledged the conduct was wrong and has accepted responsibility for the conduct;
 - (b) Evidence of strict compliance with the conditions of any disciplinary, judicial, administrative, or other order, where applicable;
 - (c) Evidence of lack of malice toward those whose duty compelled bringing disciplinary, judicial, administrative, or other proceedings against applicant;
 - (d) Evidence of cooperation with the Board's investigation;
 - (e) Evidence that the applicant intends to conform future conduct to standards of good character and fitness for legal practice;
 - (f) Evidence of restitution of funds or property, where applicable;
 - (g) Evidence of positive social contributions through employment, community service, or civic service;
 - (h) Evidence that the applicant is not currently engaged in misconduct;
 - (i) Evidence of a record of recent conduct that demonstrates that the applicant meets the essential eligibility requirements for the practice of law and justifies the trust of clients, adversaries, courts, and the public;
 - (j) Evidence that the applicant has changed in ways that will reduce the likelihood of recurrence of misconduct; or
 - (k) Other evidence that supports an assertion of rehabilitation.
- (6) Continuing Obligation. The applicant has a continuing obligation to update the application with respect to all matters inquired of on the application. This obligation continues during the pendency of the application, including the period when the matter is on appeal to the Board or the Court and during any period of conditional admission.
- (7) Determination. A character and fitness determination shall be made with respect to each applicant who is a successful examinee or who is qualified by practice for admission under these Rules. An adverse determination on character and fitness grounds may be appealed under Rule 15.

(8) Advisory Opinions.

- (a) A law student may request a written advisory opinion from the Board with respect to his or her character and fitness for admission by filing a completed application for admission, a fee in the amount required under Rule 12L, two notarized affidavits as required by Rule 4C(4), and an authorization for release of information as required by Rule 4C(2).
- (b) Advisory opinions will not be binding on the Board.

RULE 6. ADMISSION BY EXAMINATION

* * * *

- B. Timely Filing Deadlines. An application for admission by examination shall be filed in the office of the Board by October 15 for the February examination, or by March 15 for the July examination. Due dates shall be strictly enforced as specified in Rule 2B.
- C. Late Filing Deadlines. Late applications will be accepted on or before December 1 for the February examination, or on or before May 1 for the July examination, but must be accompanied by the late filing fee pursuant to Rule 12. No applications shall be accepted after the late filing deadline. Due dates shall be strictly enforced as specified in Rule 2B.
- D. Denial of Opportunity to Test. An applicant may be denied permission to take an examination:
 - (1) When the applicant has failed to comply with the requirements of Rule 4C, 4D, or 4H; or
 - (2) When the Board has determined the applicant has not satisfied the good character and fitness requirement of Rule 4A(2).

* * * *

- G. Computer Use. Any applicant requesting to use a laptop computer to write the essay and performance test portion of the bar examination shall submit a computer registration form with the application and pay the required fee.
- G.H. Examination Results. The results of the examination shall be released to examinees by regular mail to the address listed in the files of the Board, and successful examination numbers will be posted at the Court, on the Board's website, and at each Minnesota law school. The date of the release shall be announced at the examination.

H.I. Failing Examination Scores. A failing score on the bar examination is a final decision of the Board and does not afford the applicant the appeal and hearing rights set forth in Rule 15.

I.J. Stale Examination Scores. A passing score on the Minnesota Bar Examination is valid for 36 months from the date of the examination. Applicants must be admitted within 36 months of the examination.

RULE 7. ADMISSION WITHOUT EXAMINATION

A. Eligibility by Practice.

(1) Requirements. An applicant may be eligible for admission without examination if the applicant otherwise qualifies for admission under Rule 4, and provides documentary evidence showing that, for at least 60 ~~five~~ of the 84 ~~seven-years~~ months immediately preceding the application, the applicant was:
