The Commission on Practice, which shall be divided into Review and Adjudicatory Panels, shall hear and decide complaints and in appropriate cases, shall make recommendations to the Court for discipline. Prosecutorial and adjudicatory functions shall be separated and managed to secure responsiveness, efficiency, and fairness.

The areas from which the lawyer members of the Commission shall be appointed shall be comprised of the various judicial districts of the state of Montana, and are to be designated as follows:

Except for the at-large lawyer member, appointments to the Commission of the lawyer members shall be made by the Supreme Court from a list of three practicing lawyers in each Area having the three highest number of votes in an election by the Area members of the State Bar of Montana. The time, place, and method of such election shall be in accordance with the orders of this Court. In the event that said election is not held in any Area as ordered, the Supreme Court shall appoint a member from that Area to serve on the Commission.

The nonlawyer members and the at-large lawyer member of the Commission shall not be subject to the election procedure, but shall be appointed by the Court.

In the event of a vacancy in the Commission, a successor shall be appointed by the Supreme Court for the unexpired term of the member whose office is vacated. Members of the Commission may terminate their membership at their pleasure, and their membership may be terminated by the Court at its pleasure.

Notice of any such meeting shall be given by mail or by telephone not less than seven calendar days in advance of the time for such meeting, except in cases of emergency or urgency requiring, in the judgment of the person calling the meeting, a shorter time of notice. Also, the Supreme Court may call a meeting of the members to be held at a time and place ordered by the Court. Notice of such meeting shall be given as above provided. The minutes of any meeting of the Commission shall state the form and time of notice of meeting given to the members.

E. Executive Committee. The chairperson, vice chairperson, and executive secretary of the Commission shall constitute the executive committee. The principal function of the executive committee shall be to attend to administrative matters during the interval between meetings of the Commission. RULE 5. OFFICE OF DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL

A. Appointment. The Court shall appoint a lawyer to serve as Chief Disciplinary Counsel and may appoint such Deputy Disciplinary Counsels as they deem necessary. Disciplinary Counsel shall not engage in private practice; shall be admitted to practice in Montana at the time of appointment or within a reasonable time thereafter as determined by the Court; and shall maintain offices in Helena, Montana, in facilities designated by the Court.

B. Powers and Duties. Disciplinary Counsel shall perform all prosecutorial functions and shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Supervise Office of Disciplinary Counsel (Office) staff in performing central intake functions;

- (2) Evaluate all information coming to the attention of the Office to determine whether it is within the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Court;

- (4) Investigate all facts pertaining to petitions for reinstatement or readmission;

C. Prohibited Activities. Disciplinary Counsel shall not have authority to render advisory ethics opinions, either orally or in writing, or to impose any form of discipline on a lawyer.

RULE 6. COSTS AND EXPENSES; FISCAL REVIEWS AND AUDITS

A. Office of Disciplinary Counsel. The costs and expenses of the Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall be paid from an annual assessment of active members of the State Bar of Montana and of nonmembers admitted to practice under the Montana State Bar pro hac vice rules. The Supreme Court shall determine the amount of the annual member assessment.

B. Commission on Practice. The costs and expenses of the Commission shall be paid from legislatively-appropriated public funds.

C. Fiscal Reviews and Audits. The Court may direct fiscal reviews and audits of the components of the lawyer regulation system.

RULE 7. JURISDICTION

A. Any lawyer who is a member of the State Bar of Montana is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Montana, regardless of where the lawyer's conduct occurs.

B. Any lawyer specially admitted by a Montana court for a particular proceeding, appearing by pleading or otherwise in any judicial or administrative proceeding in Montana, or otherwise engaging in the practice of law in Montana, is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Montana, for conduct pertaining to his or her practice of law in Montana.

C. If a lawyer resigns as a member of the State Bar of Montana, or the lawyer's special admission or appearance in any judicial proceeding in Montana has terminated, the lawyer remains subject to disciplinary proceedings for conduct occurring prior to the effective date of the resignation or termination.

D. The grounds for disciplinary jurisdiction enumerated herein are in addition to those set forth in Rule 8.5, Montana Rules of Professional Conduct.

RULE 8. GROUNDS FOR DISCIPLINE

A. Reasons for Discipline. Discipline may be imposed for any of the following reasons:

(1) Acts or omissions by a lawyer, individually or in concert with any other person or persons, which violate the Rules of Professional Conduct or the disciplinary rules adopted from time to time by the Supreme Court.

(2) Any act committed by an attorney contrary to the highest standards of honesty, justice, or morality, including but not limited to those outlined in Title 37, chapter 61, parts 3 and 4, MCA, whether committed in such attorney's capacity as an attorney or otherwise.

(3) Conduct which results in conviction of a criminal offense.

(4) Conduct which results in lawyer discipline in another jurisdiction.

(5) Violation of the terms of any discipline or disciplinary order.

(6) Failure to promptly and fully respond to an inquiry from Disciplinary Counsel, an investigator, or the Commission, or failure to justify such refusal or nonresponse.

(7) Willful contempt of court and failure to purge the contempt.

B. Relationship to Criminal Proceedings. Acquittal of a charge of crime, plea bargain, conviction of a lesser crime, or dismissal of a charge of crime after deferred imposition of sentence shall not constitute a bar to lawyer discipline for that act, nor shall conviction in a criminal proceeding be a condition precedent to the institution of disciplinary proceedings for that act.

RULE 9. DISCIPLINE AND SANCTIONS

A. Forms of Discipline. Discipline may take one or more of the following forms:

(1) Disbarment. “Disbarment” means the unconditional termination of any privilege to practice law in this State and, when applied to any attorney not admitted to practice law in this State, means the unconditional exclusion from the admission to or the exercise of any privilege to practice law in this State.

(2) Suspension from the practice of law for a definite period of time or for an indefinite period of time with a fixed minimum term. “Suspension” means the temporary or indefinite termination of the privilege to practice law in this State and, when applied to any attorney not admitted to practice law in this State, means the temporary or indefinite exclusion from the admission to or the exercise of any privilege to practice law in this State.

(3) Public censure.

(4) Admonition administered by an Adjudicatory Panel of the Commission.

(5) Probation.

(6) Requirement of restitution to persons financially injured.

(7) Reimbursement to the Lawyers’ Fund for Client Protection.

(8) Assessment of the cost of proceedings, investigations, and audits. Whenever costs of proceedings are assessed by the Supreme Court as part of the discipline imposed upon a lawyer, the Disciplinary Counsel shall assemble and serve upon the lawyer an itemized list of those costs. The lawyer shall then have ten days thereafter in which to file written objections with the Commission on Practice and, if so desired, request a hearing before an Adjudicatory Panel on whether the amount of such costs is reasonable and necessary. An Adjudicatory Panel shall thereafter recommend an amount of costs to be imposed, and shall file its recommendation with the Supreme Court, which shall then issue an appropriate order assessing costs.

(9) Interim suspension pending final determination of discipline.

B. Discipline Criteria. The following factors shall be considered in determining discipline to be recommended or imposed:

(1) The gravity and nature of the duty violated, including whether the duty is owed to a client, to the public, to the legal system, or to the profession;

(2) The lawyer’s mental state;

(3) The actual or potential injury caused by the lawyer’s misconduct;

(4) The existence of aggravating or mitigating factors; and

(5) The existence of prior offenses.

C. Probation. A lawyer against whom disciplinary proceedings are pending may be placed on probation by the Supreme Court or, with the lawyer’s concurrence, by an Adjudicatory Panel. The probation shall be for such time and upon such terms and conditions as are determined appropriate in the case. Discipline may be imposed for violation of any of the terms and conditions of such probation, including satisfactory completion of a diversion or treatment program.

D. Procedure for Discipline for Willful Contempt of Court and Failure to Purge the Contempt. Upon receipt of a certified copy of an order of contempt that has become final, the Supreme Court may, in its discretion, issue an order to show cause why the lawyer's license to practice law should not be suspended or other discipline should not be imposed. The lawyer against whom such an order has been entered in district court shall not have the right or opportunity to re-litigate the merits of the contempt order, the right to hearing and due process having been afforded him or her in the district court.

In the alternative, the Supreme Court may direct an Adjudicatory Panel to issue the order to show cause or direct the lawyer to appear before the Adjudicatory Panel. In that event, the Adjudicatory Panel shall make a written recommendation to the Supreme Court regarding suspension of the lawyer's license or other discipline.

An attorney who has been purged of the contempt order may be reinstated to practice law. Prior to reinstatement, the lawyer shall be required to pay the costs of any proceedings before the Commission on Practice.

II. PROCEDURE

RULE 10. OFFICE OF DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL PROCEDURE

A. Central Intake and Evaluation. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall perform central intake functions including, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) Receive information and complaints regarding lawyer's alleged misconduct;
- (2) Make appropriate referrals regarding information and complaints while assuring that any member of the public who wishes to make a complaint against a lawyer is able to do so;
- (3) Provide the complainant access to a packet of written materials containing forms, instructions, and information about Montana's lawyer disciplinary process; and
- (4) Receive written complaints on the forms provided.

B. Preliminary Review and Processing of Complaints. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall conduct a preliminary review of each written complaint received by the Office and determine whether the complaint involves a matter that is within the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Court.

C. Investigation.

(1) All investigations shall be conducted by or under the authority and direction of Disciplinary Counsel. Upon such investigation as Disciplinary Counsel deems appropriate, he or she may:

- (a)(1) Send the complaint to the lawyer against whom the complaint is made;
- (2) Send the lawyer's response to the complainant and, if appropriate, request his or her reply to the lawyer's response;
- (3) Prepare an intake summary; and
- (4) Conduct an investigation and prepare an investigative report; or

(b) With or without some or all of the process set forth in Rule 10C(1)(a), dismiss the complaint without prejudice, where the complaint does not appear to be within the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Court, or the facts do not appear to warrant disciplinary action.

(c) Issue a letter of caution to a lawyer or take other corrective action when Disciplinary Counsel deems it appropriate. Any such action by Disciplinary Counsel is not disciplinary action.

(2) Notice of Disposition. In the event of a dismissal, Disciplinary Counsel shall give written notice to the complainant and to the lawyer of the dismissal, stating the reasons for the action taken, and advising the complainant of the right to request review of the dismissal.

(3) Request for Review. The complainant may file a written request for review of Disciplinary Counsel's dismissal within 30 days of the notice of disposition pursuant to Rule 10C(2). Disciplinary Counsel's dismissal shall be reviewed by a Review Panel upon the record before it. The Review Panel may approve, disapprove, or modify Disciplinary Counsel's disposition.

A lawyer against whom Disciplinary Counsel determines to take corrective action other than a letter of caution may file a written request for review of Disciplinary Counsel's determination within 30 days after Disciplinary Counsel notifies the lawyer of the corrective action. Disciplinary Counsel's determination shall be reviewed by a Review Panel upon the record before the Review Panel. The Review Panel may approve, disapprove, or modify Disciplinary Counsel's determination as to corrective action.

D. Review Panel Proceeding. Disciplinary Counsel shall:

- (1) Request leave of a Review Panel to file a formal complaint; and
- (2) Conduct further investigation at the request of a Review Panel.

E. Adjudicatory Panel Proceeding. Disciplinary Counsel shall:

- (1) Draft and prosecute formal complaints and complaints proposing interim suspension before an Adjudicatory Panel;
- (2) Recommend discipline or other disposition of a case to an Adjudicatory Panel;
- (3) Conduct any discovery pursuant to Rule 19; and
- (4) Investigate a petition for reinstatement and present relevant evidence at an Adjudicatory Panel hearing on the petition.

RULE 11. LIMITATIONS ON TIME TO BRING FORMAL COMPLAINT

A. Time Limit for Filing a Formal Complaint. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, from the time the alleged misconduct giving rise to the inquiry or complaint is discovered or, with due diligence, should have been discovered, a formal Complaint must be filed within six years from the date of the alleged misconduct.

B. When Violation Occurs. A Rule of Professional Conduct is violated when every element of a violation has occurred. But if the violation is a continuing offense, the violation occurs when the offensive conduct ends.

C. Tolling. The six-year limit is tolled, but in no case may a formal Complaint be filed after 10 years from the date of the misconduct, while:

- (1) The lawyer represents the grievant, the grievant's family member, or the grievant's business or employer;
 - (2) The grievant is a minor, or physically or mentally incapacitated;
 - (3) Civil, criminal, or administrative investigations or proceedings based on the same acts or circumstances as the violation are pending with any governmental agency, court, or tribunal;
 - (4) The lawyer conceals facts about the violation;
 - (5) The lawyer fails to cooperate with an investigation of the violation;
 - (6) The lawyer makes false or misleading statements to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel concerning the violation; or
 - (7) The disciplinary investigation or proceeding is abated under Rule 28.
- D. Exceptions. There shall be no limit on the time to file a formal Complaint for:
- (1) Any alleged misconduct based upon a plea of guilty to a felony or upon conviction of a felony; or
 - (2) Any alleged misconduct that constitutes a felony, without regard to whether the lawyer is charged, prosecuted, or convicted of a crime for the conduct.

RULE 12. FILING, SERVICE, AND FORMAL CASE PROCEDURES

A. Complaint and Citation. When a Review Panel has granted the Office of Disciplinary Counsel leave to file a formal Complaint against a respondent lawyer:

- (1) Disciplinary Counsel shall file a formal Complaint with the Clerk of the Supreme Court and shall furnish a copy to the Commission;
- (2) The Complaint shall set forth the charges with sufficient clarity and particularity as to inform the lawyer of the alleged misconduct;
- (3) The Complaint shall be signed by Chief Disciplinary Counsel or Deputy Disciplinary Counsel but need not be verified; and
- (4) The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue a citation that, together with a copy of the Complaint, shall be served on the lawyer. The citation shall require the lawyer to file a written Answer to the Complaint with the Clerk within twenty days and indicate that a failure to file an Answer within the time prescribed may subject the attorney to be in default as provided by Rule 12C(2).

B. Service.

(1) Service of Complaint. Service upon the lawyer of a Complaint in a formal disciplinary proceeding shall be made by personal service as provided in Rule 4, Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, or by registered or certified mail to the last address that the lawyer provided to the State Bar of Montana. If service is made by registered or certified mail, service is deemed complete upon mailing.

(2) Service of Other Papers. Service of any other papers or notices required by these Rules shall, unless otherwise provided by these Rules, be made in accordance with Rule 5, Montana Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall be filed with the Commission. The Commission shall keep a registry of all documents filed with the Commission.

C. Answer.

(1) The lawyer shall furnish a copy of the Answer to the Commission at the time service is made on Disciplinary Counsel.

(2) If the lawyer fails to file an Answer within the prescribed time, the allegations in the Complaint shall be deemed admitted. An Adjudicatory Panel to which the case has been assigned may make findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation to the Supreme Court for discipline or other disposition of the case.

D. Hearing, Findings, and Conclusions.

(1) If the lawyer files an Answer, the Commission shall consult with Disciplinary Counsel and counsel for the respondent lawyer or, if not represented, the respondent, to determine a hearing date before an Adjudicatory Panel. The Commission shall file and serve upon Disciplinary Counsel, the lawyer, and the lawyer's counsel, if any, a notice of hearing setting forth the date, time, and place of hearing, which notice shall be served upon said persons at least twenty days in advance thereof. The lawyer is entitled to be represented by counsel, to cross-examine witnesses, and to present evidence. The hearing shall be recorded.

(2) An Adjudicatory Panel may elect to hold a hearing notwithstanding the lawyer's failure to answer.

(3) In the conduct of a hearing, the Chairperson of an Adjudicatory Panel shall have authority to rule on all motions, objections, and other matters presented in connection with the hearing. Except as may otherwise be provided herein, and except as an Adjudicatory Panel Chairperson may determine in the interests of justice and fairness, hearings in formal disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and the Montana Rules of Evidence.

(4) Following the hearing, an Adjudicatory Panel shall make findings of fact, conclusions of law and a recommendation to the Supreme Court for discipline or other disposition of the case.

RULE 13. ADJUDICATORY HEARINGS; ADMONITIONS

Following the filing of a formal complaint, an Adjudicatory Panel may determine to sanction a lawyer by the imposition of an admonition. The Adjudicatory Panel shall determine whether to impose the admonition publicly or privately after weighing, on a case-by-case basis, the lawyer's privacy interests and the public's right to know. The demands of the lawyer's individual privacy must clearly exceed the merits of public disclosure in order for an Adjudicatory Panel to impose a private admonition. An Adjudicatory Panel may do so, however, only after consulting Disciplinary Counsel and the lawyer subject to sanction, to apprise the interested parties of its reasoning for such decision and to allow for comment.

An Adjudicatory Panel's decision to close an adjudicatory hearing and/or impose an admonition, either publicly or privately, shall be final unless, within ten days of the Adjudicatory Panel's decision, the lawyer subject to sanction, Disciplinary Counsel, or a member of the public, files a petition with the Clerk of the Supreme Court asking the Court to review the Adjudicatory Panel's decision. The Court shall conduct an in-camera review of the Adjudicatory Panel's decision in which it evaluates the lawyer's privacy interest and the public's right to know.

A private admonition should be imposed only in cases of minor misconduct, when there is little or no injury to the public, the legal system, or the profession, and when there is little likelihood of repetition by the lawyer. A private admonition informs the lawyer that his or her conduct is unethical, but does not unnecessarily stigmatize a lawyer from whom the public needs no protection.

RULE 14. REQUEST FOR REVIEW BY COMPLAINANT OF A REVIEW PANEL'S DECISION

A. Dismissal of complaint. Upon review of Disciplinary Counsel's dismissal of a complaint pursuant to Rule 10C(3), if a Review Panel affirms the dismissal, the Commission shall notify the complainant in writing that the complainant may, within thirty-five days of the date on which the notice was sent, request in writing to the Commission, review of the disposition by the Supreme Court.

B. Review discretionary. The Supreme Court may, in its sole discretion, review the Panel's disposition.

RULE 15. EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS PROHIBITED

Disciplinary Counsel and members of Review Panels, Adjudicatory Panels, the Commission, and the Supreme Court shall not communicate ex parte among themselves or with others regarding the merits of a pending or impending investigation or a disciplinary proceeding except as permitted by the Rules for Lawyer Disciplinary Enforcement. Communications for purposes of scheduling, administration, and procedural matters shall not be prohibited but shall be conducted to assure fairness to all parties.

RULE 16. REVIEW BY THE SUPREME COURT AFTER CONTESTED CASE HEARING

After service of a copy of the Commission's findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendation, a party shall have thirty days from date of service within which to file with the Court objections to the findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendation. The objecting party shall serve upon the opposing party a copy of any such objections. The opposing party shall have thirty days after date of service of such objections within which to file with the Court a written brief in opposition to such objections. A copy of such brief shall be served upon the objecting party. The Court may, in its discretion, set the matter for oral argument. In the event objections are not filed, the matter shall be deemed submitted at the expiration of the time for filing objections. The Supreme Court shall consider the matter, issue its written decision, and impose such discipline, if any, as it considers appropriate.

RULE 17. IMMUNITY

A. From Civil Suit. Communications or complaints, oral or written to, or from, the Commission and Office of Disciplinary Counsel, and testimony given in the proceedings are privileged, and no evidence thereof is admissible in any lawsuit against any complainant, witness, Commission member, Commission staff, Disciplinary Counsel, Office of Disciplinary Counsel staff, investigator, special counsel, or other person employed or retained by the Commission or the Office of Disciplinary Counsel. Waiver, if any, of such privilege by voluntary disclosure by a complainant or witness shall be determined under Rule 503, Montana Rules of Evidence. Members of the Commission, Commission staff, Disciplinary Counsel, Office of Disciplinary Counsel staff, investigators, special counsel, any other person employed or retained by the Commission to represent it in Commission matters, staff members, and persons acting for the Commission shall be immune from suit for any conduct undertaken in good faith in the course of their official duties under these Rules. All of said persons are deemed officers and/or agents of the Court for all purposes mentioned in these Rules.

B. From Criminal Prosecution. Upon application of Disciplinary Counsel or the Commission and after reasonable notice to and written consent from the appropriate county attorney(s), the Supreme Court may order that a witness cannot be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture other than a prosecution or action for perjury or contempt, for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the witness testified or produced in a lawyer disciplinary proceeding.

RULE 18. SERVICE [Abrogated]

RULE 19. OATHS, SUBPOENA POWER, AND DISCOVERY

A. Any member of the Commission or other person authorized by law may administer oaths and affirmations in matters pending before the Commission.

B. Investigative Subpoenas.

(1) Before a formal Complaint has been filed, the chairperson of the Commission may cause subpoenas to be issued commanding the persons to whom they are directed to produce books, records, papers, documents, and other objects as may be necessary and proper to the investigation.

(2) An investigative subpoena may be issued upon the affidavit of Disciplinary Counsel showing good cause to believe that:

(a) the lawyer who is the subject of the investigation, or the person from whom information is sought, has failed to cooperate with Disciplinary Counsel's request for information in connection with that investigation;

(b) a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct or these Rules has been committed; and

(c) the information relative to the commission of that violation is in the possession of the person or institution to whom the subpoena is directed.

(3) The lawyer who is the subject of the investigation need not be given advance notice of the investigative subpoena. Upon execution of the investigative subpoena, Disciplinary Counsel shall provide a copy of the investigative subpoena to the lawyer who is the subject of the investigation.

C. Subpoenas for Deposition or Hearing. After formal charges are filed, any member of the Commission may, at the request of Disciplinary Counsel or the lawyer, compel, by subpoena or order, the attendance of witnesses and the production of pertinent books, papers, and documents.

D. Enforcement of Subpoenas. Any person subpoenaed or ordered to appear and give testimony, or to produce pertinent books, papers, or documents, who fails or refuses to appear or to produce such books, papers, or documents, or any person having been sworn to testify, who refuses to answer any proper questions, may, upon request of the Commission or the Office of Disciplinary Counsel, be cited for contempt of the Supreme Court. The Commission or the Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall report to the Court the facts relating to any such contempt. Thereupon, proceedings before the Supreme Court shall be had as in cases of other contempts. The Supreme Court may, upon proper application, also enforce the attendance of any witness and the production of any documents subpoenaed.

E. Subpoena Pursuant to Law of Another Jurisdiction. Whenever a subpoena is sought in Montana pursuant to the law of another jurisdiction for use in lawyer discipline or disability proceedings or investigations, and where the issuance of the subpoena has been duly approved under the law of the other jurisdiction, the chairperson of the Commission, upon request of Disciplinary Counsel (in a case where the request is by the disciplinary authority of the foreign jurisdiction) or an attorney admitted to practice in this jurisdiction (in a case where the request is by a respondent in a proceeding in the foreign jurisdiction), may issue a subpoena as provided in this section to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of documents in the county where the witness resides or is employed or elsewhere as agreed by the witness. Service, enforcement, or challenges to this subpoena shall be as provided in these rules.

F. Challenging Subpoena. Any challenge to the validity of a subpoena issued under this Rule shall be heard and determined by the chairperson of the Commission or, in his or her absence, the vice-chairperson or executive secretary, subject to review by the Supreme Court, at the request of Disciplinary Counsel or the lawyer. Upon a determination that an investigative subpoena issued under subsection B of this Rule was improper or overly broad, any information improperly obtained through the subpoena must not be used as evidence in any disciplinary proceeding against the lawyer who is the subject of the investigation.

G. Discovery. Disciplinary Counsel and the lawyer shall be afforded reciprocal discovery. Disputes concerning the scope and other aspects of discovery shall be determined by the chairperson, or in his or her absence the vice-chairperson, of the Adjudicatory Panel.

H. Witnesses and Fees. Witness fees and mileage shall be the same as provided by law for witnesses in civil actions in the District Courts of the State of Montana.

RULE 20. ACCESS TO DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

A. Confidentiality. All disciplinary information provided to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and proceedings before the Commission on Practice prior to the filing of a formal complaint with the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall be confidential, except that Disciplinary Counsel may disclose information if:

- (1) The respondent has waived confidentiality;

(2) The proceeding is based upon allegations that include either the conviction of a crime or reciprocal discipline;

(3) The proceeding is based upon allegations that have become generally known to the public;

(4) There is a need to notify another person or organization, including the Lawyers Fund for Client Protection Board, the Commission on Character and Fitness, other lawyer disciplinary agencies, law enforcement agencies, and the Lawyer's Assistance Program, in order to protect the public, the administration of justice, or the legal profession, unless Disciplinary Counsel reasonably determines that disclosure would hinder an ongoing investigation or prosecution, infringe upon the privacy interests of a reporting or other third party, or constitute an unduly broad or burdensome request; or,

(5) There is a need to disclose information to third parties while investigating a complaint.

B. Public Information. Upon the filing of a formal complaint with the Clerk of the Supreme Court in a disciplinary matter, or upon the filing with the Clerk of the Supreme Court of a petition for reinstatement, the proceedings before the Commission and pleadings and other documents filed with the Clerk or Commission shall be public except for:

(1) Deliberations and minutes of the Commission;

(2) Information or proceedings with respect to which an Adjudicatory Panel or Supreme Court has issued a protective order;

(3) Conditional admissions and affidavits of consent submitted pursuant to Rule 26 of these Rules until, and if, approved by the Court and public discipline is imposed; and

(4) Hearings conducted pursuant to Rule 26 of these Rules.

C. Admissibility in Other Proceedings. The conclusions, opinions, and recommendations of Disciplinary Counsel or any investigator or special counsel acting on behalf of the Office of Disciplinary Counsel while acting in those capacities are not relevant or admissible for any purpose in any quasi-judicial or judicial forum, exclusive of the Commission on Practice and the Montana Supreme Court in a disciplinary action.

RULE 21. DISSEMINATION OF DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Notice of Discipline Imposed. The Clerk of the Supreme Court shall cause copies of orders and notices of transfer to disability/inactive status, public censure, suspension, disbarment, and reinstatement to be given to the Clerks of all of the District Courts of the State of Montana, all of the District Judges of the State of Montana, the Clerk of the Federal District Court for the District of Montana, the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Appeals of the Ninth Circuit, the Chairperson of the Commission, and the Executive Director of the State Bar of Montana, or as the Supreme Court otherwise may direct.

RULE 22. ADDITIONAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

A. Proceedings Governed by Rules of Civil Procedure. Except as otherwise inconsistent with these rules, the Rules of Civil Procedure of the State of Montana apply in disciplinary cases.

B. Standard of Proof. Allegations in a formal Complaint and grounds for reinstatement shall be established by clear and convincing evidence.

C. Burden of Proof. The burden of proof in formal proceedings seeking discipline is on Disciplinary Counsel. The burden of proof in reinstatement proceedings is on the person seeking reinstatement.

D. Availability of Hearing Transcript. A copy of the record of a hearing shall be made available to the lawyer at his or her expense on request made to the Commission.

E. Related Pending Litigation. After the filing of a formal Complaint, disciplinary proceedings shall not be delayed because of substantial similarity to the material allegations of pending criminal or civil litigation. The chairperson of an Adjudicatory Panel in his or her discretion may, upon request of a party, authorize a stay for good cause shown, but only after notice and opportunity to be heard.

F. Delay Caused by Complainant. Neither withdrawal of an informal complaint by a complainant, nor a settlement, nor a compromise between the complainant and the lawyer, nor restitution by the lawyer shall, in itself, justify abatement of the processing of any complaint.

G. Effect of Time Limitations. Except as is otherwise provided in these rules, time is directory and not jurisdictional. Failure to observe prescribed time intervals may result in sanctions against the violator but does not justify abatement of any disciplinary investigation or proceeding.

H. Complaints Against Commission Members. Allegations of grounds for discipline against lawyer members of the Commission shall be processed in the same manner as allegations against nonmembers of the Commission; provided, however, that the Commission member against whom such allegations are made shall be disqualified from participating in any manner as a Commission member with respect to that matter.

I. Dismissed Complaints. An informal complaint that has been dismissed, or upon which no disciplinary action is taken or recommended, shall be expunged from Commission and Disciplinary Counsel records and, for all purposes, shall be considered as null, void and nonexistent.

RULE 23. LAWYERS CONVICTED OF A CRIMINAL OFFENSE

A. Transmittal of Certificate of Conviction. The clerk or other official of any court in this state in which a lawyer subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court has been convicted of a criminal offense shall, within thirty days of the date of conviction, transmit a certificate of conviction to the Supreme Court, Disciplinary Counsel, and the Commission on Practice.

B. Procedure on Receipt of Certificate of Conviction. Upon receipt of the certificate of conviction, the Supreme Court, either on its own motion or on that of Disciplinary Counsel, shall determine whether the criminal offense is one which affects the lawyer's ability to practice law. If the Court determines that the lawyer was found guilty of a criminal offense that affects the lawyer's ability to practice law, the Supreme Court shall enter an order immediately suspending the lawyer from the practice of law pending final disposition of a disciplinary proceeding predicated upon the conviction. The Supreme Court shall in the same order direct Disciplinary Counsel to prepare and file a formal complaint against the lawyer predicated upon the conviction. If the criminal offense does not involve the lawyer's ability to practice law, the Supreme Court shall enter an order to that effect and, thereafter, the matter shall be processed like any other information coming to the attention of the Commission. The Court need not give notice to the lawyer, nor shall a hearing be required prior to its determination of whether the criminal offense of which the lawyer was convicted was one which affects the lawyer's ability to practice law, nor shall a hearing be required prior to the Supreme Court's entering an interim order of suspension. A copy of any order entered pursuant to this Rule shall be served upon the lawyer, Disciplinary Counsel, and the Commission. Upon good cause shown, the Court may in the interest of justice set aside or modify the interim suspension; however, the interim suspension may not be set aside solely by reason of a pending appeal of the conviction to the Supreme Court or because of an appeal by trial de novo.

C. Formal Proceedings After a Conviction. The sole issue to be determined in the formal disciplinary proceedings conducted after a lawyer is convicted of a criminal offense which affects the lawyer's ability to practice law shall be the extent of the final discipline to be imposed, provided that a disciplinary proceeding so instituted will not be brought to hearing until all appeals from the conviction are concluded unless the lawyer requests that the matter not be deferred.

D. Certificate of Conviction Conclusive. A certificate of conviction of a lawyer for a criminal offense shall be conclusive evidence of the commission of that crime in any disciplinary proceeding instituted against the lawyer based upon the conviction.

E. Automatic Reinstatement From Interim Suspension Upon Reversal of Conviction. If a lawyer suspended solely under the provisions of paragraph B above demonstrates that the underlying conviction has been reversed or vacated, the order for interim suspension shall be vacated and the lawyer placed on active status. The vacating of the interim suspension will not automatically terminate any formal proceeding then pending against the lawyer, the disposition of which shall be determined by the Adjudicatory Panel on the basis of the available evidence.

F. Notice to Clients and Others on Interim Suspension. An interim suspension order entered pursuant to this Rule shall constitute a suspension of the lawyer for purposes of Rule 21.

RULE 24. FAILURE TO RESPOND TO THE OFFICE OF DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL OR THE COMMISSION

If a lawyer subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission should fail or refuse to promptly and fully respond to a complaint or other inquiry communicated to such lawyer in writing by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel or the Adjudicatory or Review Panel before which the matter is pending, the Panel, in addition to other proceedings authorized by these Rules, may direct such lawyer to appear before the Panel and show cause why appropriate discipline or sanction should not be imposed for failure to respond or cooperate. If the matter is pending before a Review Panel, and the lawyer fails to show good cause, the Review Panel shall refer the matter to an Adjudicatory Panel. Notice of such show cause hearing shall be served upon the lawyer at least twenty days prior to the hearing. If at such hearing the lawyer shall fail to respond or show a just or reasonable cause for not responding, then in addition to the disciplines and sanctions otherwise provided by these Rules, the Adjudicatory Panel may, upon determination of its appropriateness, recommend to the Supreme Court the immediate interim suspension of such lawyer for a period not to exceed thirty days, or such earlier date as the attorney shall fully respond to and cooperate with the Disciplinary Counsel and the Commission on Practice.

RULE 25. CONDUCT CONSTITUTING THREAT OF HARM TO CLIENTS OR THE PUBLIC

A. Petition for Interim Suspension. Upon receipt of evidence constituting probable cause that a lawyer subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct or is incapacitated and, in either case, poses a substantial threat of serious harm to clients or the public, Disciplinary Counsel may file a petition with the Supreme Court to have the lawyer suspended pending proceedings. The clerk shall send the lawyer a copy of the petition to his or her last known address.

B. Interim Suspension. Upon review of the petition, the Supreme Court may either deny the petition or direct the lawyer to show good cause, if any, why the lawyer should not be suspended during the pendency of either criminal proceedings or disciplinary proceedings. After providing the lawyer with the opportunity to be heard, the Court may enter an order suspending the lawyer from the practice of law, or may order such other action as it deems appropriate.

C. Notice to Clients. A lawyer suspended pursuant to this Rule shall comply with the notice requirements of Rules 30 and 32.

RULE 26. DISCIPLINE BY CONSENT

A. Adjudicatory Panel Approval of Tendered Admission. A lawyer against whom formal disciplinary proceedings have been filed may tender a conditional admission to the complaint or to particular allegations therein in exchange for a stated form of discipline. The tendered admission shall be submitted to an Adjudicatory Panel. An Adjudicatory Panel may refer the tendered admission to the Disciplinary Counsel for recommendations. The Adjudicatory Panel may either approve or reject the tendered admission. The Adjudicatory Panel may hold a private hearing for the purpose of obtaining information to aid the Adjudicatory Panel in determining whether to approve or reject the tendered admission. If the tendered admission is approved by the Adjudicatory Panel, such approval shall be final if the stated form of discipline is an admonition, probation imposed by an Adjudicatory Panel as provided in Rule 9C of these Rules, or both, with or without imposition of costs of the proceeding; but, in all other instances, the tendered admission shall be subject to approval or rejection by the Supreme Court. If the tendered admission is rejected by either the Adjudicatory Panel or the Supreme Court, the admission shall be deemed withdrawn and cannot be used against the lawyer in any subsequent proceedings.

B. Affidavit of Consent. A tendered admission shall include an affidavit stating the lawyer's consent to the discipline and that:

(1) The lawyer's consent is freely and voluntarily tendered, and that the lawyer is not being subjected to coercion or duress, and that the lawyer is fully aware of the implications of submitting the consent;

(2) The lawyer is aware that there has been a formal charge filed against the lawyer, the nature of which the lawyer shall specifically set forth; and

(3) The lawyer acknowledges that the material facts so alleged are true or the lawyer submits his or her consent because he or she knows that if the case proceeded to a formal hearing, he or she could not successfully defend himself or herself.

The final order of discipline shall be predicated upon the formal complaint, the conditional admission, the affidavit, and such other information and evidence to which the Disciplinary Counsel and the lawyer may have stipulated, or which may have been elicited at a private hearing referred to in Rule 26A.

C. Order of Discipline. If the discipline by consent is a form of discipline that may be imposed by the Adjudicatory Panel, the Adjudicatory Panel shall enter the order. In all other instances in which the proposed discipline has been approved, the Supreme Court shall enter the order. The order of discipline by consent shall be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court, and a copy thereof shall be served upon the lawyer, the lawyer's counsel, the Commission, Disciplinary Counsel, and the complainant.

D. Confidentiality. All tendered admission proceedings prior to entry of a consent discipline order shall be confidential and subject to the provisions of Rule 20 of these Rules.

Upon entry of an order imposing public discipline, the conditional admission and affidavit of consent shall be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court and made public.

RULE 27. RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE AND RECIPROCAL DISABILITY/INACTIVE STATUS

A. Office of Disciplinary Counsel to Obtain Order of Discipline or Disability/Inactive Status from Other Jurisdiction. Upon being disciplined or transferred to disability/inactive status in another jurisdiction, a lawyer admitted to practice in Montana shall promptly inform the Office of Disciplinary Counsel of such action. Upon notification that a lawyer subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court has been disciplined or transferred to disability/inactive status in another jurisdiction, Disciplinary Counsel shall file a petition, attaching a certified copy of the order, with the Supreme Court.

B. Notice Served Upon the Lawyer. Upon receipt of Disciplinary Counsel's petition, the Court shall issue an order directing the lawyer to inform the Court, within thirty days from the date of service, of any claim by the lawyer predicated upon the grounds set forth in paragraph D of this rule, that the imposition of the identical discipline or transfer to disability/inactive status in the state of Montana would be unwarranted and the reasons therefor. A copy of the order from the other jurisdiction shall be attached to the order.

C. Effect of Stay of Discipline in Other Jurisdiction. In the event the discipline imposed in another jurisdiction has been stayed, any reciprocal discipline imposed in Montana may be deferred until the stay expires.

D. Discipline to be Imposed or Transfer to Disability/Inactive Status. Upon expiration of thirty days from service of the order pursuant to the provisions of paragraph B of this rule, the Supreme Court shall impose the identical discipline or transfer to disability/inactive status unless the lawyer demonstrates, or the Court finds that upon the face of the record from which the discipline was predicated it clearly appears that:

(1) The procedure was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process;

(2) There was such infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct as to give rise to the clear conviction that the Supreme Court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the conclusion on that subject;

(3) The imposition of the same discipline by the Supreme Court would result in grave injustice; or

(4) The misconduct established warrants substantially different discipline in the state of Montana.

If the Supreme Court determines that any of those elements exists, it shall enter such other order as it deems appropriate.

E. Conclusiveness of Adjudication in Other Jurisdiction. In all other aspects, a final adjudication in another jurisdiction that a lawyer has been guilty of misconduct or transferred to disability/inactive status shall establish conclusively the misconduct or disability for purposes of proceedings in Montana.

RULE 28. DISABILITY/INACTIVE STATUS

A. Automatic Transfer to Disability/Inactive Status. The Supreme Court shall enter an order immediately transferring a lawyer to disability/inactive status upon receipt of a certified copy of a judgment, order, or other appropriate document demonstrating that the lawyer:

(1) Was found to be incapable of assisting in his or her own defense in a criminal action;

(2) Was acquitted of a crime based on mental disease or defect;

(3) Had a guardian or conservator appointed, but not a temporary guardian or conservator, for his or her person or estate on a judicial finding of incapacity; or,

(4) Was involuntarily committed to a mental health facility.

A copy of the order shall be served, in the manner the Court may direct, upon the lawyer, his or her guardian, or the director of the institution to which the lawyer has been committed.

B. Assertion of Inability to Assist in Defense. If, during the course of a disciplinary investigation or proceeding, a lawyer alleges an inability to assist in his or her defense due to mental or physical incapacity, Disciplinary Counsel shall notify the Court. The Court shall immediately transfer the lawyer to disability/inactive status until further order of the Court.

C. Notice of Transfer. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, notice of transfer to disability/inactive status shall be given to those persons and in the manner provided in Rule 30. All orders transferring a lawyer to or from disability/inactive status are public.

D. Term of Disability/Inactive Status. Transfer to disability/inactive status, unless otherwise specified by order, shall be for an indefinite period and may include such terms and conditions for transfer to active status as may be appropriate.

E. Stay of Disciplinary Proceedings. Pending disciplinary proceedings shall be deferred during the period a lawyer is on disability/inactive status. Such proceedings shall be heard and disposed of as provided in these rules upon reinstatement of the lawyer to active status.

F. Reinstatement to Active Status.

(1) A lawyer transferred to disability/inactive status may petition for transfer to active status after six months or such other time period specified in the order of transfer, or in subsequent orders.

(2) Upon receipt of a petition for transfer to active status, the Adjudicatory Panel shall schedule a hearing on the petition as soon as practicable. Proceedings for transfer to active status shall be conducted in the same manner as formal proceedings pursuant to Rule 29. Upon motion by Disciplinary Counsel, the chairperson of the Adjudicatory Panel may order examination of the lawyer by qualified experts.

(3) A lawyer transferred to disability/inactive status based on an assertion of an inability to assist in his or her defense of disciplinary proceedings due to mental or physical incapacity must show by clear and convincing evidence the lawyer did in fact suffer from a condition that prevented the lawyer from assisting in his or her defense and that the lawyer can now assist in his or her defense.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, any other petition for transfer to active status shall be granted upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the disability has been removed.

(5) A lawyer previously judicially declared incompetent may petition for immediate transfer to active status, without hearing, upon proof of judicial declaration of competency by a court of competent jurisdiction.

RULE 29. REINSTATEMENT FOLLOWING DISCIPLINE

A. After Suspension of Six Months or Less. A lawyer suspended for no more than six months may resume practice at the end of the period of suspension by filing with the Court, and serving upon the Administrative Officer of the Commission, and Disciplinary Counsel, an affidavit stating that the lawyer has fully complied with the requirements of the suspension order, and has paid any required fees and costs ordered by the Court.

B. After Disbarment or Suspension for More Than Six Months. Subject to the limitations set forth in Rule 29C, any lawyer who shall have been disbarred or who shall have been suspended indefinitely or for more than six months may, by verified petition, apply for:

- (1) An order of reinstatement;
- (2) An order shortening the term of a fixed period of suspension; or
- (3) An order modifying an order of indefinite period of suspension by fixing a definite period of suspension.

The petition shall bear the case number and caption appearing in the order of discipline. An original and seven copies shall be filed with the Clerk of the Supreme Court. The lawyer shall serve a copy of the petition on the Commission and on Disciplinary Counsel. The petition shall set forth the facts that the lawyer contends show that he or she has rehabilitated himself or herself, and that he or she is entitled to have the order of discipline vacated, terminated, or modified.

C. Time for Filing Petition.

(1) A lawyer suspended from practice may not petition for reinstatement earlier than ninety days prior to the end of the period of the fixed term or minimum fixed term of the suspension.

(2) A lawyer serving an indefinite suspension beyond the minimum fixed term may petition for reinstatement at any time.

(3) A disbarred lawyer may not petition for reinstatement until five years after the effective date of disbarment.

D. Hearing and Notice on Application. Upon receipt of a petition, the Commission shall, within ninety days after receipt of such petition, or such later date as may be mutually agreed upon by petitioner and the Commission, schedule an Adjudicatory Panel hearing on the petition. The petitioner shall have the burden of demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that he or she meets the following criteria, or, if not, has presented good and sufficient reason why he or she should nevertheless be reinstated:

(1) The lawyer has fully complied with the terms of all prior disciplinary orders;

(2) The lawyer has not engaged nor attempted to engage in the unauthorized practice of law;

(3) If the lawyer was suffering under a physical or mental disability or infirmity at the time of suspension, including alcohol or other drug abuse, the disability or infirmity has been removed, and where alcohol or other drug abuse was a causative factor in the lawyer's misconduct, the lawyer:

(a) has pursued appropriate rehabilitative treatment; and

(b) has abstained from the use of alcohol or other drugs for at least one year, and is likely to continue to abstain from alcohol or other drugs;

(4) The lawyer recognizes the wrongfulness and seriousness of the misconduct;

(5) The lawyer has not engaged in any other professional misconduct since suspension;

(6) The lawyer has the requisite honesty and integrity to practice law; and

(7) The lawyer has kept informed about recent developments in the law and is competent to practice.

The proceedings before the Adjudicatory Panel relating to such petition shall be governed by the applicable provisions of these rules governing hearings in disciplinary proceedings including Rule 20 concerning confidentiality, unless otherwise provided herein or unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Notice of such hearing shall be given to the public in such manner and to such extent as the Adjudicatory Panel deems appropriate in each case. In any event, notice of such application or petition shall be given to the Supreme Court, all of the Judges of the District Courts of the State of Montana, all of the Federal District Judges of the District of Montana, and the Executive Director of the State Bar of Montana. The notice of hearing shall set forth that any interested person may testify at the hearing.

Disciplinary Counsel may investigate the contentions set forth in the petition for reinstatement and present relevant evidence at the hearing.

E. Deposit for Cost of Proceeding. Upon receipt of a petition for reinstatement, an Adjudicatory Panel, before proceeding further, may require the petitioner to deposit with the Commission an amount deemed reasonable by the Commission to cover anticipated costs of the reinstatement proceedings.

F. Recommendation of Commission and Action by Court. The Adjudicatory Panel shall make a written recommendation to the Supreme Court on the petition for reinstatement, including the imposition of such conditions to reinstatement as it deems appropriate to protect the public interest. Thereupon the Supreme Court shall, in the exercise of its discretion, take such action as it deems advisable.

RULE 30. NOTICE TO CLIENTS AND OTHERS

A. Recipients of Notice and Contents of Notice. Unless otherwise ordered by the Adjudicatory Panel or the Supreme Court, within ten days after the date of the order of the Court imposing the discipline of disbarment or suspension, the lawyer shall notify or cause to be notified by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested:

(1) All clients being represented in pending matters;

(2) Any co-counsel in pending matters;

(3) Any opposing counsel in pending matters or, in the absence of such counsel, the adverse parties, that the Court has ordered the disbarment or suspension of the lawyer and that the lawyer is therefore disqualified to act as a lawyer after the effective date of the order; and

(4) any court in which the respondent attorney appears as counsel of record in any pending matter in compliance with Uniform District Court Rule 10 (and any corresponding Local Rule), as well as § 37-61-403, MCA.

B. Notice to Clients of Lawyers Who Are Disbarred or Suspended. The lawyer shall deliver to all clients being represented in pending matters any papers or other property to which they are entitled and shall notify them and any counsel representing them of a suitable time and place where the papers and other property may be obtained, calling attention to any urgency for obtaining the papers or other property.

C. Notification to Court. In the event the client does not obtain another lawyer before the effective date of the disbarment or suspension, it shall be the responsibility of the lawyer to notify in writing the judge of the court having jurisdiction of the pending matter of the circumstances.

RULE 31. EFFECTIVE DATE OF ORDER, WINDING UP OF AFFAIRS

Orders imposing discipline shall be effective immediately upon entry, unless the Adjudicatory Panel or the Supreme Court specifies otherwise in the order. The lawyer, after entry of a disbarment or suspension order, shall not engage as a lawyer for any new case or legal matter of any nature. The lawyer shall refund any part of any fees paid in advance which have not been earned.

RULE 32. AFFIDAVIT FILED WITH COURT

Within twenty days after the effective date of the disbarment or suspension order, the lawyer shall file with the Supreme Court, the Adjudicatory Panel, and the Disciplinary Counsel an affidavit showing:

- (1) The lawyer has fully complied with the provisions of the order and with these Rules;
- (2) A list of all other state, federal, and administrative jurisdictions to which the lawyer is admitted to practice; and
- (3) The lawyer's residence or other addresses where communications may thereafter be directed to him or her.

RULE 33. APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEE TO PROTECT CLIENTS' INTERESTS

A. Appointment of Trustee. If a lawyer has been disbarred or suspended, or is deceased, disabled or missing, and there is reasonable cause to believe it is necessary to protect the interests of a lawyer's clients, and no partner, personal representative, or other responsible party capable of conducting the lawyer's affairs is known to exist, a district judge in the judicial district in which the lawyer maintained his or her practice shall appoint an attorney or attorneys, including attorneys on inactive or senior status, as trustee over the lawyer's practice.

B. Terminology.

(1) "Disabled" means that a lawyer has a physical or mental condition resulting from accident, injury, disease, chemical dependency, mental health problems, or age that significantly impairs the lawyer's ability to practice law. The term includes, but is not limited to, a lawyer who has been transferred to disability/inactive status.

(2) "Missing" means that a lawyer is unavailable or unwilling to attend to the needs of his or her client(s) for a period beyond what is reasonable and customary to the practice of law and/or by conduct has demonstrated that he or she is unlikely to properly discharge his or her professional duties in the future.

C. Procedure. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall file an ex parte verified petition, which may be based on hearsay, requesting the appointment of a trustee with the clerk of the district court for any county in the judicial district in which the lawyer maintained his or her practice. The petition may be filed without notice. The clerk shall send the lawyer a copy of the petition at his or her last known address. If a district judge in the judicial district in which the lawyer maintained his or her practice is unavailable, any district judge may consider the petition. The court may grant or deny the petition without a hearing. All orders issued by a district judge pursuant to this rule shall be served upon the lawyer at his or her last known address.

D. Duties and Powers of Trustee. Upon appointment, the trustee shall take reasonable measures to protect the interests of the lawyer's clients. Such measures may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) Take possession of and examine the files and records of the law practice and obtain information as to any pending matters which may require attention;
- (2) Provide notice to the lawyer's active clients of the lawyer's status;
- (3) Provide a client with his or her file on request;

- (4) With leave of the court, destroy any inactive or closed files;
- (5) With leave of the court, access and take possession of the lawyer's operating and trust bank accounts and, upon approval of the court, refund any unearned fees or funds belonging to third persons;
- (6) Make appropriate distribution, upon approval of the court, of any other assets in the lawyer's possession belonging to the lawyer, clients, or third persons;
- (7) Notify persons and entities who appear to be clients of the lawyer that it may be in their best interest to obtain replacement counsel and advise them, when appropriate, of any statute of limitations;
- (8) Apply for stays and extensions of time pending employment of replacement counsel by a client;
- (9) Make referrals to replacement counsel with the agreement of a client or accept representation of a client with the agreement of the client;
- (10) Retain the services of other professionals and third parties when necessary to perform the trustee's duties; and,
- (11) Obtain further court orders or other relief necessary to perform the trustee's duties.

E. Review of Court Orders. Within 30 days from the filing of any order issued pursuant to this rule, the lawyer or someone on his or her behalf, a client or former client, or any other interested person may file a written request that the court reconsider its order de novo.

Within 30 days of the filing of the court's decision reconsidering its order, the trustee, the lawyer or someone on his or her behalf, a client or former client, or any other interested person may file a petition requesting review of the decision with the Supreme Court.

F. Protection of Client Information. A trustee shall not be permitted to disclose any information contained in any client file without the consent of the client to whom the file relates, except as necessary to carry out the trustee's duties.

G. Expenses. Any fees and expenses associated with the appointment of a trustee shall be paid by the Office of Disciplinary Counsel. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel may negotiate the fees and expenses for which it will be responsible prior to the attorney's appointment as trustee. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall be entitled to reimbursement from the lawyer for whom the trustee is appointed.

H. Final Report. When the purposes of the trusteeship have been accomplished with respect to the lawyer's law practice, the trustee shall file a final report and an accounting of all funds and property coming into the custody of the attorney trustee. The trustee shall serve a copy of the final report on the Office of Disciplinary Counsel and upon the attorney at his or her last known address. Upon the filing of the final report, the trustee is discharged from further duties, subject to further order of the court.

I. Immunity. A trustee shall be immune from suit for any conduct undertaken in good faith in the course of performing his or her duties. This immunity shall not extend to any matter in which a trustee has assumed representation of a client as an attorney.

RULE 34. VERIFICATION OF BANK ACCOUNTS

Whenever Disciplinary Counsel has probable cause to believe that the bank accounts of a lawyer that contain, should contain, or have contained funds belonging to clients, have not been properly maintained or that the funds have not been properly handled, the Disciplinary Counsel may initiate an investigation for the purpose of verifying the accuracy and integrity of all bank accounts maintained by the lawyer, and an investigator may be appointed by Disciplinary Counsel for that purpose.

Investigations, examinations, and verifications shall be conducted so as to preserve the private and confidential nature of the lawyer's records insofar as is consistent with these Rules and the attorney-client privilege, provided, however, that all investigatory materials may be provided to, or exchanged with, the State Bar of Montana, Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection.
