16 MEMORANDUM OPINION

17 VANZI, Chief Judge.

18 {1} Defendant Martin Duran appeals his convictions of possession of a stolen
19 vehicle and evading a peace officer, initially asserting four issues on appeal. [DS 9-10]

1 This Court issued a calendar notice proposing to affirm the judgment below and 2 Defendant has filed a memorandum in opposition to that disposition conceding, for 3 purposes of appeal, that this Court’s analysis is correct with regard to three of those 4 issues. [MIO 1] The remaining issue asserts evidentiary error with regard to the 5 admission of a photograph. [MIO 1-2] Having duly considered Defendant’s argument 6 with regard to the admission of that photograph, we remain unpersuaded and affirm.

7 {2} The photograph at issue depicted Defendant wearing handcuffs shortly after his 8 arrest. [MIO 1] Defendant objected at trial that the prejudicial effect of such a 9 photograph substantially outweighed its probative value. [MIO 2] See Rule 11-403 10 NMRA. The district court, however, ruled that the photograph was relevant and 11 admissible, and received it in evidence. [MIO 2] Presumably, the photograph was 12 relevant to establishing Defendant’s identity as the person who had led police on a 13 chase in a stolen SUV. [Id.; DS 7 (describing “a light skinned Hispanic male” wearing 14 “dark clothing and a blue hat”)]

15 {3} In his memorandum in opposition to summary affirmance, Defendant relies 16 upon out-of-state authority for the proposition that forcing a defendant to appear 17 before the jury in shackles or prison clothing can amount to a due process violation.
18 [MIO 2-4] Defendant argues from that authority that the photograph of him wearing 19 handcuffs served to undermine the presumption of innocence to which all criminal

1 defendants are entitled. [MIO 2-3] Defendant's out-of-state cases, however, are 2 inapplicable to the issue at hand, in that those cases deal with the qualified right to be 3 free of visible restraints during trial. [Id.] As such, those cases do not support the 4 proposition that a single photograph of Defendant in handcuffs at the time of his arrest
5 could so undermine the presumption of innocence as to raise serious concerns 6 regarding due process.

7 {4} Given the fact that Defendant's potential identity as the person who committed 8 the underlying crimes in this case was a contested factual issue placed before the jury, 9 a photograph depicting Defendant's appearance shortly after the relevant events could 10 have strong probative value. Under these circumstances, we cannot say that the district 11 court abused its discretion in allowing the admission of such a photograph.

12 {5} Thus, for the foregoing reasons, as well as the reasons provided in our calendar 13 notice, we affirm the judgment of the district court.

14 {6} IT IS SO ORDERED.
