UPON THE FOREGOING CITED PAPERS, THIS DECISION/ORDER ON THE MOTION IS AS FOLLOWS:

Plaintiff moves pursuant to CPLR§1021, substituting Ralph Carson, as Executor of the Estate of Martha Carson, deceased; and amending the caption to reflect the substitution of Ralph Carson, as Executor of the Estate of Martha Carson, deceased; lifting the stay imposed by the death of Martha Carson; and restoring the matter to active status on the Court's calendar under the new caption. No opposition has been submitted.

After a review of the papers presented, all relevant statutes and case law, the Court grants the motion.

Plaintiff seeks to recover monetary damages for personal injuries he sustained due to the negligence of defendants, who owned the premises wherein he tripped and fell. Plaintiff served a Summons and Complaint on or about February 20, 2007. Defendant, Martha Carson, subsequently died in June 2009, thus staying the instant matter. Plaintiff asserts that a prior motion dated March 7, 2010, requested similar relief to that requested herein. However, said motion was denied. Apparently, at that time, it was believed that Ms. Carson had not left a will, no probate proceedings had been instituted and her counsel had not anticipated such proceedings.

The aforementioned prior motion sought, inter alia, the substitution of Ethel J. Griffith as New York County Public Administratrix for the deceased defendant. However, pursuant to Surrogate's Court Procedure Act § 1102, public administrators are appointed by county surrogates such that the motion was denied and the stay remained in effect. Thereafter, plaintiff signed a Consent to Change Attorney, substituting the Law Office of Thomas E. Gorman, Esq., as attorney of record to replace out-going counsel, Barry, McTiernan & Moore, which had been filed with the court on September 27, 2011. Mr. Gorman asserts that discussions with Ms. Carson's attorney's office confirmed that she had died intestate and that her surviving family members exhibited no interest in pursuing her estate. Consequently, Mr. Gorman prepared the necessary paperwork for petition to the New York County Surrogate's Court, for the appointment of a public administrator.

At some point thereafter, contact was established with Ms. Carson's children, the distributees of her estate, in an effort to determine if they would consent to the appointment of an Administrator. It was also later determined that the New York County Surrogate's Court had issued Testamentary Letters to Ralph Carson, Ms. Carson's son, and her attorney prepared a Stipulation, stipulating to the relief requested therein. Said stipulation was signed by counsel of all the parties with the exception of Corporation Counsel for the City of New York. Mr. Gorman also asserts that follow-up phone calls to Corporation Counsel went unheeded, necessitating the instant motion. He argues that granting the instant motion would not prejudice any of the defendants.

It is well settled that “[m]otions for leave to amend the pleadings should be freely granted...absent prejudice or surprise resulting therefrom..., unless the proposed amendment is palpably insufficient or patently devoid of merit” (CPLR §3025(b); see also MBIA Ins. Corp. v. Greystone & Co., Inc., 74 A.D.3d 499, 499-500 [1st Dept. 2010]; see also Briarpatch Ltd., L.P. v. Briarpatch Film Corp., 60 A.D.3d 585, 585 [1st Dept. 2009]; Thompson v. Cooper, 24 A.D.3d 203, 205 [1st Dept. 2005]). Although leave to amend should be freely granted, an examination of the underlying merits of the proposed amendment is warranted in order to conserve judicial resources (see Eighth Ave. Garage Corp. v. H.K.L. Rtly, Corp., 60 A.D.3d 404, 405 [1st Dept. 2009], lv denied 12 N.Y.3d 880 [2009]). Whether to permit amendment is within the sound discretion of the court (see Pellegrino v. NYC Transit Auth., 177 A.D.2d 554, 557 [2d Dept. 1991], lv denied 80 N.Y.2d 760 [1992]; Aurora Loan Services, LLC v. Dimura, 104 A.D.3d 796 [2d Dept. 2013]).

In the case at bar, the Court finds that the proposed amendment would not cause any prejudice to defendants, and that it is palpably sufficient.

Therefore, in consideration of the foregoing, it is hereby ORDERED that plaintiff’s motion for leave to amend the caption is granted; and it is also

ORDERED that the new caption shall read:
