Hon. James E. d'Auguste

Pursuant to this Court's decision and order dated March 24, 2016, this Court has conducted an in camera review of the two General Municipal Law ("GML") Section 50-h hearing transcripts submitted by respondent The Office of the Comptroller of the City of New York ("Comptroller's Office"). Upon review of the transcripts, the Court finds that the transcripts do not contain any material or relevant information that would have assisted in the litigation of the within action. Based upon the foregoing, the Comptroller's Office is not under any obligation to produce the two GML Section 50-h hearing transcripts to petitioner The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board. Any aggrieved party may seek appellate review, if warranted. This constitutes the decision and order of this Court.
