ERIKA M. EDWARDS, J.:

Plaintiff American Transit Insurance Company ("American Transit") now moves, by notice of motion, filed on October 30, 2017, for a default judgment in its favor, pursuant to CPLR §3215, against ADVANCED CLINICAL LABORATORY SOLUTIONS, INC., CITIMEDICAL I, PLLC, HEALTHY LIVING CHIROPRACTIC, P.C., INJURED WORKERS

PHARMACY, LLC, JM HEALTH ACUPUNCTURE P.C., MERRICK MEDICAL P.C., METROPOLITAN MEDICAL & SURGICAL P.C., NASSAU ANESTHESIA ASSOCIATES, P. C. and VSENAM MEDICAL SUPPLY, INC. (collectively “Defaulting Defendants”) for their failure to answer or appear in this action.<sup>1</sup> American Transit also moves for summary judgment against answering Defendants LONG ISLAND SPINE & ORTHOPEDICS, P.C. and PHILIP M. RAFIY MD.<sup>2</sup> For the reasons set forth herein, American Transit’s motion for default judgment is GRANTED without opposition to the extent that default judgment is entered in American Transit’s favor as against Defaulting Defendants. American Transit’s motion for summary judgment against Defendants LONG ISLAND SPINE & ORTHOPEDICS, P.C. and PHILIP M. RAFIY MD is DENIED as moot.

Plaintiff American Transit commenced this action on August 31, 2016, for a judgment declaring that it owes no duty to pay any No-Fault benefits arising out of an alleged motor vehicle accident which occurred on March 20, 2015. The individual defendant Kasim Taylor (hereafter “Claimant”), was a passenger in one of the vehicles involved in the accident that was insured by American Transit. The vehicle’s insurance policy included the mandatory no-fault endorsement. The complaint alleges that after American Transit received notice of the accident, it attempted to investigate and subsequently requested that Claimant appear for an Independent Medical Examination (“IME”). Despite due demand, Claimant failed to appear for his scheduled IME on more than two occasions. Those failures to appear violated provisions in the No-Fault

<sup>1</sup> American Transit is not seeking relief against Defendant Kasim Taylor due to its inability to timely serve Mr. Taylor and is not seeking relief against Defendants Virtual Radiologic Professionals of New York, P.A. and Winthrop University Hospital per stipulation between the parties.

<sup>2</sup> After filing the instant motion, American Transit discontinued the matter against Defendants Long Island Spine & Orthopedics, P.C. Philip M. Rafiy MD, Long Island Emergency Care, P.C., and Mercy Medical Center.

Regulations and violated conditions precedent to coverage for all No-Fault claims submitted by Claimant and the medical provider defendants as his assignees.

Pursuant to CPLR 3215, American Transit has demonstrated that Defaulting Defendants were properly served with the summons and complaint, that Defaulting Defendants failed to answer or appear in this action, that the time to do so has long since passed, and that American Transit's claims are meritorious.

Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED that Plaintiff American Transit Insurance Company's motion for default judgment as against Defendants ADVANCED CLINICAL LABORATORY SOLUTIONS, INC., CITIMEDICAL I, PLLC, HEALTHY LIVING CHIROPRACTIC, P.C., INJURED WORKERS PHARMACY, LLC, JM HEALTH ACUPUNCTURE P.C., MERRICK MEDICAL P.C., METROPOLITAN MEDICAL & SURGICAL P.C., NASSAU ANESTHESIA ASSOCIATES, P.
