DECISION + ORDER ON MOTION

-----X HON. BARRY R. OSTRAGER

Before the Court is a motion by Plaintiffs for an Order pursuant to CPLR 1024 amending the case caption to reflect the true name of the following defendants: (i) SYMON GARBER, as Trustee under the SYMON GARBER FAMILY PROTECTION TRUST (previously named as "SYMON GARBER as Trustee under the GARBER DYNASTY TRUST"); and (ii) PREMIER TRUST, INC., as Trustee under the ELINA GARBER FAMILY PROTECTION TRUST (previously named as “SYMON GARBER, as Trustee under the LINA GARBER TRUST”), and to deem all prior proceedings in this case so amended. Counsel asserts that plaintiffs have been attempting through discovery since the beginning of the case to ascertain the true name of the Garber Trusts and acted promptly upon obtaining the information to move to amend (NYSCEF Doc. No. 272). The motion is granted as follows.

CPLR 1024 provides that:

A party who is ignorant, in whole or in part, of the name or identity of a person who may properly be made a party, may proceed against such person as an unknown party by designating so much of his name and identity as is known. If the name or remainder of the name becomes known all subsequent proceedings shall be taken under the true name and all prior proceedings shall be deemed amended accordingly.

Plaintiffs have provided sufficient information to satisfy the terms of the statute. Defendants have opposed the motion, contending that the statute only applies to unknown parties named as “John Doe” defendants, that plaintiffs failed to demonstrate diligent efforts to learn the true names of the parties, and that parties may not be added without first serving them because the Complaint, as drafted, does not fairly apprise either party that it is the intended defendant. The lack of notice is particularly acute, defendants contend, with respect to Premier Trust, Inc., a Trustee that plaintiffs seek to name for the first time. (See NYSCEF Doc. No. 274). Plaintiffs in reply specify the various facts alleged in the Complaint that identified the intended defendants, and counsel adds that “Defendants’ counsel actually appeared on behalf of the two Garber Trusts in this action and a related appeal, before objecting that the Trusts had been misnamed.” (NYSCEF Doc. No. 277, p 5). Further, any delay in moving was a result of defendants’ failure to provide the correct information in response to plaintiffs’ demands. Under these circumstances, the Court finds that the terms of CPLR 1024 and due process have been satisfied. See New York Practice, §188 (6th ed. 2018).

Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED that the motion to substitute is granted, and SYMON GARBER, as Trustee under the SYMON GARBER FAMILY PROTECTION TRUST and PREMIER TRUST, INC., as Trustee under the ELINA GARBER FAMILY PROTECTION TRUST be substituted as defendants in the above-entitled action in the place and stead of as “SYMON GARBER as Trustee under the GARBER DYNASTY TRUST” and “SYMON GARBER, as Trustee under the LINA GARBER TRUST”), respectively, without prejudice to any proceedings heretofore had herein; and it is further

ORDERED that all papers, pleadings, and proceedings in the above-entitled action be amended by substituting the names indicated as defendants, in the place and stead of the originally named defendants, without prejudice to prior proceedings had herein; and it is further

ORDERED that the caption in this action shall read as follows:
