Per Curiam.

{¶1} This is an appeal from the probate court’s judgment that awarded fees to the co-executors’ attorneys. The probate court issued a decision in which it awarded attorney fees related to a will-contest action and ordered that the fees be paid solely out of one beneficiary’s distributive share of the estate proceeds. We do not decide whether the court erred in its allocation of the fees, because the court’s order is not a final appealable order. We therefore dismiss the appeal.

{¶2} Our review is limited to final orders. “An order of a court is a final, appealable order only if the requirements of both Civ.R. 54(B), if applicable, and R.C. 2505.02 are met.” Chef Italiano Corp. v. Kent State Univ., 44 Ohio St.3d 86, 541 N.E.2d 64 (1989), syllabus. In this case, the court awarded the attorney fees, and stated that “[t]he hearing on the Application of the Co-Executors for Extraordinary Fiduciary Fees * * * and [t]he hearing on the Application of the Co-Executors as to total attorney fees payable to Graydon Head & Ritchey LLP [are] continued in progress.” The order was not a final appealable order because it did not determine the underlying estate action or affect a substantial right. See R.C. 2505.02(B). We therefore dismiss the appeal.

Appeal dismissed.
