

{¶ 2} Counsel for appellant, A.L.-P., and counsel for appellant, R.P.-C., have each filed briefs with this court pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396 (1967), which (1) indicate that a careful review of the record from the proceedings below fail to disclose any errors by the trial court prejudicial to the rights of appellants upon which an assignment of error may be predicated; (2) list a combined two potential errors "that might arguably support the appeal," Anders at 744; (3) request that this court review the record independently to determine whether the proceedings are free from prejudicial error and without infringement of appellants' constitutional rights; (4) request permission to withdraw as counsel for appellants on the basis that the appeals are wholly frivolous; and (5) certify that a copy of the brief and motion to withdraw have been served upon appellants.

{¶ 3} Having allowed appellants sufficient time to respond, and no response having been received, we have accordingly examined the record and find no error prejudicial to appellants' rights in the proceedings in the trial court. The motions of counsel for appellants requesting to withdraw as counsel are granted, and these appeals are dismissed for the reason that they are wholly frivolous.
