PER CURIAM

Appellant seeks reversal of a judgment committing her to the custody of the Mental Health Division for a period not to exceed 180 days. See ORS 426.130. In her only assignment of error, appellant contends that the trial court plainly erred when it failed to advise her of the possible results of the commitment hearing as required by ORS 426.100(1). Specifically, she asserts that the trial court plainly erred when it failed to advise her of the possibilities of dismissal, voluntary treatment, or conditional release. In response, the state concedes that the trial court's failure to advise appellant of all of the possible results of the proceeding as required by ORS 426.100(1) is plain error. State v. M. M., 288 Or App 111, 114-16, 405 P3d 192 (2017); State v. M. S. R., 288 Or App 156, 157, 403 P3d 809 (2017). We agree that the error is plain, and conclude that it is appropriate to exercise our discretion to correct the error for the reasons stated in M. M., 288 Or App at 116 (nature of civil commitment proceedings, relative interests of the parties in those proceedings, gravity of the violation, and ends of justice).
