PER CURIAM

Defendant, who was convicted of second-degree criminal mischief, ORS 164.354, appeals that judgment of conviction along with an award of $210 in restitution to the victim of the offense. We reject three of defendant's four assignments of error without discussion, addressing only her argument that the record did not establish that the victim sustained an economic loss of $210. The state concedes the error. Any discussion of the details of this matter would not benefit the bench, the bar, or the public. We agree with and accept the state's concession.

Award of restitution reversed; remanded for resentencing; otherwise affirmed.
