

FILED: March 28, 2012

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF THE STATE OF OREGON

In the Matter of W. C.,
Alleged to be a Mentally Ill Person.

STATE OF OREGON,
Respondent,

v.

W. C.,
Appellant.

Multnomah County Circuit Court
101172176

A147319

Connie L. Isgro, Judge pro tempore.

Submitted on February 03, 2012.

Rebecca Carter filed the brief for appellant.

John R. Kroger, Attorney General, Mary H. Williams, Solicitor General, and Cecil A. Reniche-Smith, Assistant Attorney General, filed the brief for respondent.

Before Schuman, Presiding Judge, and Wollheim, Judge, and Nakamoto, Judge.

PER CURIAM

Reversed.

1                   PER CURIAM

2                   Appellant seeks reversal of a judgment committing her as a mentally ill
3 person for a period not to exceed 180 days. ORS 426.130. Appellant argues that the
4 record does not establish by clear and convincing evidence that she is a danger to others
5 because of a mental disorder. See ORS 426.005(1)(e). The state concedes that the 6 evidence is legally insufficient for involuntary commitment and that the judgment should 7 be reversed. We agree, accept the state's concession, and reverse.

8                   Reversed.
