1 PER CURIAM

2 In this mental commitment case, appellant appeals a judgment committing
3 her to the Mental Health Division for treatment for a period of time not to exceed 180
4 days. ORS 426.130. She contends that the trial court erred in finding that, because of a
5 mental disorder, she is unable to provide for her basic personal needs. The state concedes 6 that the record lacks clear and convincing evidence that appellant suffered from a mental 7 disorder and, because of that mental disorder, is unable to provide for her basic personal
8 needs. We find the state's concession to be well-founded and accept it.
