This matter is before the court on its own motion to dismiss this case for lack of prosecution.

A case management conference was held in this matter on November 29, 2011, during which Plaintiff's authorized representative stated that Plaintiff wished to file a late application for 2011-12 property tax exemption and agreed to file a written status report by January 31, 2012, stating whether the appeal is settled, withdrawn, or a trial is requested. The court received no further communication from Plaintiff and, on February 9, 2012, the court sent the parties a Journal Entry instructing Plaintiff to file a status report within 14 days of the date of the Journal Entry. The February 9, 2012, Journal Entry stated that Plaintiff's failure to comply with the deadlines set forth therein would result in dismissal of Plaintiff's appeal.

Plaintiff's deadline has passed and the court has not received Plaintiff's status report or any further communication from Plaintiff. Under such circumstances, the court finds this matter should be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Now, therefore,
