Defendant.)	DECISION OF DISMISSAL

This matter is before the court on its own motion to dismiss this case for lack of prosecution.

A case management conference was set in this matter for 9:45 a.m. on December 15, 2011. Plaintiffs’ authorized representative, Barbara S. Craven (Craven), failed to appear for that proceeding. On December 15, 2011, Craven filed a letter stating “Attached gave me a call in time of 9:45 this morning but our phones were down until now. Can it be rescheduled. It was not my fault that I didn’t call in – I wanted to and planned on it.” The court set a second case management conference for 10:30 a.m. on January 4, 2012. Craven failed to appear for the case management conference on January 4, 2012.

On January 5, 2012, court issued an Order requiring Plaintiffs’ representative to file, within 14 days of the date of the Order, a written response explaining her failure to appear for the January 4, 2012, case management conference and identifying three mutually convenient trial dates. The Order stated that “Plaintiffs’ failure to file a written response will result in dismissal of this appeal.” As of the date of this Decision, the court has received no further communication from Plaintiffs or their authorized representative. Under such circumstances, the court finds the appeal must be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Now, therefore,

IT IS THE DECISION OF THIS COURT that the Complaint is dismissed.

Dated this ____ day of January 2012.
