On August 14, 2013, the court sent notice of the scheduled case management conference to Plaintiff at the email address Plaintiff provided to the court. The notice was not returned as undeliverable. The notice advised that if Plaintiff did not appear, the court might dismiss the appeal.

On September 11, 2013, the court sent Plaintiff a letter that explained the importance of diligently pursuing an appeal. That letter sent to the address that Plaintiff provided to the court was not returned as undeliverable. The letter advised that if Plaintiff did not provide a written explanation by September 25, 2013, for her failure to appear, the court would dismiss this appeal. As of this date, Plaintiff has not submitted a written response to the court explaining her failure to appear at the September 11, 2013, case management conference. Under such circumstances, the court finds the appeal must be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Now, therefore,
