Defendant.)	DECISION OF DISMISSAL

This matter is before the court on its own motion to dismiss.

On March 2, 2000, the court put this case into abeyance pending the outcome of settlement discussions or until further order of the court. The parties were to submit trial dates by September 1, 2000, if a settlement appeared unlikely.

On September 6, 2000, the court mailed the parties a letter requesting plaintiff submit a written status report or a request to withdraw the case. The court specifically requested that plaintiff provide this information. The court went on to warn that failing to provide the information by September 20, 2000, would result in dismissal.

Ample opportunity has been given to supply the information. No response has been made. Therefore, the court concludes that the appeal should be dismissed.

Now, therefore;
