ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 20th day of December, 2017, the Petition for Allowance of Appeal is

GRANTED, LIMITED TO Petitioner's first issue, as stated by Petitioner:

Whether absent of finding the Court of Common Pleas acted with manifest unreasonableness, partiality, prejudice, bias, or ill-will, the Superior Court of Pennsylvania erred in finding evidence of another burglary committed against the same victim, at the same location, also without the use of forcible entry, and also utilizing the same key to unlock the same lock box containing the same alleged amount of money taken from the same victim (3) years after the instant alleged burglary is not relevant to the defense of the crime for which Petitioner is charged and tends to prove a common scheme, plan, or design rendering the evidence admissible as evidence of similar crimes, behaviors, and/or acts[.]

The Petition for Allowance of Appeal is DENIED in all other respects.
