ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 27th day of September, 2013, the Petition for Allowance of Appeal is GRANTED. The issue, rephrased for clarity, is:

Following remand of this matter for reconsideration by the Superior Court in light of Commonwealth v. Perry, 32 A.3d 232 (Pa. 2011), did the Superior Court, in purporting to distinguish Perry, disregard, for a second time, this Court's directives in Perry and Commonwealth v. Walls, 926 A.2d 957 (Pa. 2007)?
