

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF TEXAS

NO. PD-0779-19

JAMES ELWOOD KING, JR., Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

ON STATE'S PETITION FOR DISCRETIONARY REVIEW
FROM THE ELEVENTH COURT OF APPEALS
COMANCHE COUNTY

Per curiam. YEARY, J., filed a dissenting opinion in which SLAUGHTER, J., joined.

OPINION

Appellant was convicted of assault and sentenced to ten years in prison. In the bill of costs, the trial court assessed Appellant a $25 time payment fee. See TEX. LOCAL GOV'T CODE § 133.103. On appeal, the Court of Appeals struck a portion of that fee as being unconstitutional. King v. State, No.11-17-00179-CR, 2019 Tex. App. LEXIS 5902 (Tex.

App. – Eastland July 11, 2019) (not designated for publication).

The State has filed a petition for discretionary review challenging the court’s constitutional analysis. We recently handed down our opinion in Dulin v. State, Nos. PD-0856-19 & PD-0857-19, 2021 Tex. Crim. App. LEXIS 273 (Tex. Crim. App. Mar. 31, 2021), in which we held that the time payment fee was assessed prematurely because the pendency of appeal suspends the obligation to pay court costs. As a result, there was no need to reach the State’s constitutional arguments.

We grant review on our own motion of the following ground:

Should the “Time Payment Fee” be struck as prematurely assessed?

Addressing that ground in light of Dulin, we vacate the judgment of the Court of Appeals, and remand this case to the Court of Appeals for proceedings consistent with this opinion.

The State’s petition is refused.
