AN ORIGINAL PROCEEDING

IN MANDAMUS

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Relator, Rosa Serrano, pro se, has filed a petition for writ of mandamus against the Honorable Virgil Mulanax requesting that that we order him to judicially foreclose on a constitutional lien against real property owned by the Real Party in Interest, Pellicano Business Park, L.L.C.¹ On December 19, 2014, we issued an opinion denying mandamus relief. Relator filed a motion for rehearing and a motion to recuse the Honorable Steven Hughes, Justice of the Eighth Court of Appeals. She has also filed a motion requesting expedited disposition of her motions. The motion for rehearing and the motion for expedited disposition are granted. Because Justice Hughes has voluntarily recused himself from this case, the motion to recuse is denied as moot. The opinion and judgment issued on December 19, 2014 are withdrawn. The following is the opinion of the Court.

To be entitled to mandamus relief, Relator must meet two requirements. In re Prudential Insurance Company of America, L.L.C., 148 S.W.3d 124, 135 (Tex. 2004); Walker v. Packer, 827 S.W.2d 833, 840 (Tex. 1992). First, she must show that the trial court clearly abused its discretion. Prudential, 148 S.W.3d at 135. Second, she must demonstrate that there is no adequate remedy by appeal. In re Prudential, 148 S.W.3d at 135; In re McAllen Medical Center, Inc., 275 S.W.3d 458, 462 (Tex. 2008). Based on the petition and record before us, we conclude that Relator has failed to establish that she is entitled to mandamus relief. See TEX.R.APP.P. 52.8. Accordingly, the petition is denied.
