MEMORANDUM OPINION

Relator, Jeremy David Howard, has filed a pro se petition for writ of mandamus complaining of the “Shelby County District Court” with respect to relator’s criminal proceedings.

TEX. GOV’T CODE ANN. § 22.221(b)(1) (West 2004) provides that each court of appeals for a court of appeals district may issue all writs of mandamus, agreeable to the principles of law regulating those writs, “against a judge of a district or county court in the court of appeals district.” Shelby County is not in the Eleventh Court of Appeals District. TEX. GOV’T CODE ANN. § 22.201(l) (West Supp. 2012). Instead, Shelby County is in the Twelfth Court of Appeals District. See GOV’T § 22.201(m). Therefore, we do not have jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus against either a judge or district court of Shelby County.

Accordingly, the petition for writ of mandamus is dismissed for want of jurisdiction.
