

Opinion filed August 29, 2014

In The
Eleventh Court of Appeals

No. 11-12-00073-CR

CHRISTOPHER GALINDO, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 42nd District Court

Taylor County, Texas

Trial Court Cause No. 24325A

MEMORANDUM CONCURRING OPINION

Because I believe that the enhanced photographs are cumulative of other photographs in evidence and because I believe that a proper predicate was not laid for their admissibility, I would hold that the trial court erred when it admitted the enhanced photographs. However, on this record, I would hold that the error is nonconstitutional error and that, in view of the overwhelming evidence of guilt, the error did not affect Appellant's substantial rights. Therefore, I concur in the result.
