MEMORANDUM OPINION ON REMAND

Opinion By Justice Lang-Miers

Appellant Great American Lloyds Insurance Company appealed the trial court's judgment in favor of Appellee Audubon Insurance Company. We issued our opinion and judgment on August 6, 2012, affirming the trial court's judgment. Great American sought and received extensions of time to file its petition for review in the Supreme Court of Texas. Meanwhile, the parties reached a full and final settlement of their claims in this case, and Great American filed a motion to abate the appeal in the supreme court. The supreme court granted the motion, treating it as a petition for review. Without regard to the merits, the supreme court granted the petition and remanded the case to this Court for rendition of judgment in accordance with the parties' settlement agreement.

As part of their settlement agreement, the parties have filed a joint motion asking this Court to withdraw its opinion of August 6, 2012, vacate the judgment of that date, render a judgment of dismissal with prejudice, and tax costs of court against the party incurring the costs. We grant the December 28, 2012 agreed motion. We withdraw our August 6, 2012 opinion in this case and vacate the Court's judgment of that date. This is now the opinion of the Court.

Pursuant to the parties' settlement agreement, we dismiss this appeal with prejudice and tax costs of court against the party incurring the costs. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.1(a)(2)(A).
