MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Moseley, Francis and Lang
Opinion by Justice Moseley

By letter dated May 8, 2012, we notified appellant the $175 filing fee in this case was due. We cautioned appellant that failure to file the fee within ten days would result in dismissal of the appeal. By letter dated July 25, 2012, we informed appellant that the Dallas County Clerk's Office had notified us that the clerk's record had not been filed in this case because appellant had not paid the clerk's fee for the record. We directed appellant to, within ten days, file verification of payment or written documentation that appellant is entitled to proceed without payment of costs. We cautioned appellant that failure to file the required documentation might result in dismissal of the appeal for want of prosecution. To date, appellant has not paid the filing fee, provided verification that she has paid for the clerk's record, provided written documentation that she is entitled to proceed without payment of costs, or otherwise corresponded with the Court regarding the status of this appeal.

Therefore, we dismiss this appeal. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.3(b),(c).
