MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Lang, Myers, and Brown
Opinion by Justice Myers

On July 7, 2014, the Dallas County Clerk informed the Court that appellant had not paid or made arrangements to pay for the clerk's record. That same day, we sent appellant a letter telling him of the Dallas County Clerk's notice. In the letter, we directed appellant to provide us, within ten days, with written verification that he had paid or made arrangements to pay for the clerk's record or written documentation that he had been found to be entitled to proceed without payment of costs. We cautioned appellant that his appeal might be dismissed for want of prosecution if he failed to provide us with the required documentation within the time specified. To date, appellant has not provided the Court with the required documentation regarding the status of the clerk's record nor has he otherwise corresponded with the Court regarding his appeal.

Accordingly, we DISMISS this appeal for want of prosecution. See TEX. R. APP. P.
