MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Francis, Myers, and Lewis
Opinion by Justice Lewis

In a letter dated July 30, 2014, the Court questioned its jurisdiction over this appeal. Specifically, there did not appear to be a final judgment. We instructed appellant to file, by August 18, 2014, a letter brief addressing our jurisdictional concern. We cautioned appellant that failure to file a letter brief within the time requested may result in dismissal of the appeal without further notice. As of today's date, appellant has not filed a jurisdictional brief.

Generally, this Court has jurisdiction only over appeals from final judgments. See Lehmann v. Har-Con Corp., 39 S.W.3d 191, 195 (Tex. 2001). A final judgment is one that disposes of all pending parties and claims. Id. In appellant's notice of appeal, he stated that he is appealing the trial court's judgment signed on May 27, 2014. The clerk's record does not contain any such document. It does contain a general denial filed by the District Attorney's Office on that date. The general denial, however, is a pleading, not an appealable order.

The record before this Court does not contain a final judgment or other appealable order.
For this reason, we dismiss this appeal. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.3(a).
