IN RE MIRIAM IVONNE IRIZARRY, Relator

Original Proceeding from the 417th Judicial District Court
Collin County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 417-56700-2015

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Lang-Miers, Fillmore, and Schenck
Opinion by Justice Schenck

The petition in this case arises from a dispute over the interpretation of a custody order. In her original mandamus petition, relator, who is the child's mother, contends the trial court's temporary orders in the Suit Affecting Parent-Child Relationship impermissibly deprive her of the exclusive right to designate the child's primary residence. Ordinarily, to be entitled to mandamus relief, a relator must show both that the trial court has clearly abused its discretion and that relator has no adequate appellate remedy. In re Prudential Ins. Co., 148 S.W.3d 124, 135–36 (Tex. 2004) (orig. proceeding). We cannot conclude that relator has demonstrated she is entitled to relief. We deny the petition for writ of mandamus.
