V.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Lang-Miers, Myers, and Boatright
Opinion by Justice Boatright

The clerk's record in this appeal is past due. By letter dated January 24, 2018, we informed appellant that the Dallas County Clerk had notified the Court that the clerk's record has not been filed because appellant had not paid for or made arrangement to pay for the clerk's record. We directed appellant to file written verification that he had paid for or made arrangements to pay for the clerk's record or that he had been found to be entitled to proceed without payment of costs. We cautioned appellant that if he did not file the required documentation within ten days, his appeal was subject to being dismissed without further notice. To date, appellant has not provided the required documentation or otherwise corresponded with the Court regarding the status of the clerk's record.

Accordingly, we dismiss this appeal for want of prosecution. Tex. R. App. P. 37.3(b); 42.3(b), (c).
