IN RE TAYLOR MEGAN WIRHT, Relator

Original Proceeding from the 429th Judicial District Court
Collin County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 429-56324-2016

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Francis, Evans, and Schenck
Opinion by Justice Schenck

In this original proceeding, relator Taylor Megan Wirht complains of the trial court's March 8, 2018 temporary orders, which gave Simon Harkins the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the couple's two children. To be entitled to mandamus relief, a relator must show both that the trial court has clearly abused its discretion and that relator has no adequate appellate remedy. In re Prudential Ins. Co., 148 S.W.3d 124, 135–36 (Tex. 2004) (orig. proceeding). Based on the record before us, we conclude relator is not entitled to the relief requested because she has not shown that the trial court abused its discretion. Accordingly, we deny relator's petition for writ of mandamus. See TEX. R. APP. P. 52.8(a) (the court must deny the petition if the court determines relator is not entitled to the relief sought).
