In The Court of Appeals
Fifth District of Texas at Dallas

No. 05-22-00887-CV

IN RE ALEX NEAL, Relator

Original Proceeding from the 296th Judicial District Court
Collin County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 296-82970-2022

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Molberg, Pedersen, III, and Garcia
Opinion by Justice Pedersen, III

Before the Court is Alex Neal’s September 7, 2022 “Writ of Habeas Corpus.”

We construe this filing as an original petition for writ of habeas corpus. In his petition, Neal contends that a true bill of indictment contains numerous errors, that the indictment has been wrongfully duplicated nine times, and that he is innocent.

This Court does not have original jurisdiction to consider petitions seeking habeas relief generated in connection with criminal proceedings. See TEX. GOV’T CODE ANN. § 22.221(d); TEX. CODE CRIM. PROC. art. 11.05; In re Spriggs, 528 S.W.3d 234, 236 (Tex. App.—Amarillo 2017, orig. proceeding); In re Ayers, 515 S.W.3d 356, 356–57 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2016, orig. proceeding) (per curiam); see also In re Dingler, Nos. 05-22-00594-CV, 05-22-00595-CV, 05-22-00596-CV, 05-22-00597-CV, 2022 WL 2302173, at *1 (Tex. App.—Dallas June 27, 2022, orig. proceeding) (mem. op.).

We dismiss relator’s original petition for writ of habeas corpus for want of jurisdiction.
