MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Reichek, Goldstein, and Garcia Opinion by Justice Garcia

On January 30, 2024, we sent a letter to the parties questioning our jurisdiction because the complained-of summary judgment order does not appear to be final or an appealable interlocutory order. We directed appellants to file a letter brief addressing our jurisdictional concern. Appellants responded to our jurisdictional inquiry, conceding the complained-of order in this case does not dispose of all the parties and claims and does not otherwise reflect the order is final. Appellee also filed a letter brief agreeing that we lack jurisdiction over this appeal. Because a final judgment or appealable interlocutory order is a prerequisite to this Court's jurisdiction, and the record reflects neither, we dismiss this appeal. See Lehman v. Har-Con, Corp., 39 S.W.3d 191, 195 (Tex. 2001).
