

Opinion issued November 20, 2014

In The Court of Appeals
For The
First District of Texas

NO. 01-14-00699-CR

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellant
V.
NICHOLAS GEARY, Appellee

On Appeal from the 155th District Court
Austin County, Texas
Trial Court Case No. 2014R-0041

MEMORANDUM OPINION

On October 27, 2014, appellant, the State of Texas (by and through its District Attorney for Austin County) filed a motion to dismiss this appeal. The motion to dismiss complies with Texas Rule of Appellate Procedure 42.2(a) and no prior decision has issued in this case. See TEX. R. APP. P. 42.2(a). Accordingly, we grant the motion and dismiss this appeal.

On November 12, 2014, appellee filed a motion requesting that we expedite consideration of this matter. Although not specifically mentioned in appellee's motion, we consider the motion as a request to expedite issuance of the mandate in this appeal. Because the motion to expedite demonstrates good cause to expedite issuance of the mandate, we grant the motion and the Clerk of this Court is directed to issue the mandate immediately. See TEX. R. APP. P. 18.1(c).

We dismiss any other pending motions as moot.
